Fish Regulations.

The debate on the Fish Export Regulations is being continued at the Board of Trade Rooms this afternoon, an adjournment having taken place from Tuesday. So far as the discussion has gone, the various speakers taking part have not thrown much light on the matter, and the general public and outport shippers are still waiting to know what it all means, and just where the latter fits into the new regulations. So far as the big fish exporters outside St. John's were concerned, the rules were put into force without even consulting them or asking an opinion either by wire or letter, consequently having been thus ignored, it cannot be expected that they will look with favor upon the latest ukase.

So far as the Hawes combine is concerned, there is nothing to prevent them entering into a mutual agreement, making for their own advantage, but if it is the intention to force and compel by process of legislative enactment, all others who do not care to be identified with such an arrangement, then there is created a situation which is without parallel, and Hawes and the combine become a giant monopoly, controlling the disposal and sale of every cod's tail shipped from Newfoundland to Europe, the ramifications of which may eventually spread to all the other fish markets of the world entered by this dominion. The speakers thus far in favor of the regulations have but attempted a defence of the agreement made between their firms and Hawes. They have not denied, however, that a connection exists between the formation of the Fish Trust and the promulgation of the Export Regulations, which have already been pronounced upon by the Supreme Court as illegal. Had there been no combine there would not have been any necessity for the departmental pronouncement of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries. Hence until it is made clear that there is absolutely no relationship between the two, both must be looked upon with suspicion and distrust.

Big Carnival To-Night.

The biggest and best ice carnival to take place in this country will be seen at the Prince's Rink to-night. More skaters than in any other years have been going to the Prince's this season, and to-night will witness the most brilliant collection of fantastic, multi-colored costumes ever seen in St. John's. Mr. Bulley, the rink manager, has done every possible thing to make the event a great success and a novel scheme for deciding the winners of the prizes has been devised by him. This is a system of balloting. Each skater on the ice and every one off will vote on his or her choice, polling one vote for a gentleman and one for a lady. The prizes are $20 and $10, in gold pieces. The Polling Station will be found on the south corner of the Rink, and forms will be distributed. Great amusement is expected to result from this novel method.

AT THE BALRAM.—The following are guests at Balram Place:—C. Fisher, Clarke's Beach; J. J. Pine, English Hr., Fortune Bay; B. J. Hollett, M. Riggs, Mr. Redmond, Marytown.

Lecture on Oriental Women.

A large audience attended the lecture given by Rev. Canon Smart at the Canon Wood Hall last night. The lecturer in his discourse dealt with the work of the women of the orient as told in Burmah, China, Corea, India, Africa and Japan. The efforts of such missionaries as Rev. Dr. Jullick in inculcating new ideas and ethics of education for them were dwelt upon and many lessons were drawn for the benefit of those present. An interesting series of lantern slides illustrated the lecture, which was enjoyed to the fullest extent. Dr. Jones, in moving a vote of thanks to the lecturer, emphasized the appeal, made during the discourse, to aid the magnificent work of the Women's Missionary Society of St. Thomas's. The motion was carried by acclamation and duly tendered. Following the lecture an auction of handkerchiefs, conducted by Mr. Reg Dowden, took place, and quite a large sum was realized.

Hit by Shunting Engine.

REID CO. EMPLOYEE LOSES LEG. Mr. Arthur Rowe has lost a leg as a result of an accident at the Reid Nfld. Co.'s railway yard yesterday afternoon. Rowe, who is a foreman at the freight sheds, was walking along one of the tracks between the station and the sheds, when he was hit by an engine which came from behind. The leg was badly crushed below the knee. Dr. John Fallon was called to the scene and, finding the injury to be serious, he had Mr. Rowe conveyed to the General Hospital by ambulance. There it was decided that an amputation would have to be performed. This took place at 12.30 this afternoon.

Local Schooners Lost.

The schooner Monchy has been abandoned in mid-Atlantic and the crew rescued by the steamer Persian Prince, bound to New York. The Monchy—a new vessel—was bound across with 4,000 qts. of shore fish from the Union Trading Co. The schooner A. V. Conrad, which took a cargo of fish from A. Goodridge & Sons for Europe, has been abandoned by her crew in mid-ocean. The Italian steamer Caserta, bound to Naples from Philadelphia, has picked up the crew and the schooner was set on fire before the abandonment.

Human Society Meeting.

The Society for the Protection of Cruelty to Animals held its annual meeting at Grenfell Institute this afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock. As we go to press it is learned that resolution condemning the clipping of horses in the fall and winter and of cutting off dogs' tails are to be introduced. Each of these customs is an objectionable one and the efforts of the Humane Society to have them discontinued deserve the help of every citizen.

McMurdo's Store News.

THURSDAY, Feb. 5, 1920. Kidney and urinary troubles, pain in the back, irritation of the bladder, etc., are somewhat common in cold weather, and are often very painful and annoying. McMurdo's Kidney Pills do not claim to be a cure-all, but in simple uncomplicated cases of kidney trouble, especially where there is more or less constipation, these pills, with proper attention to diet will usually remove the trouble with a promptness much to the satisfaction of the patient. Price 30c. a bottle.

We have a few dainty little bottles of Luxor Perfume left after stock-taking. We are selling them at (considering their quality) the very moderate price of $1.75 a bottle. The quality ranks with the finest of American perfumes, and each bottle is put up in a neat box.

Viking to the Rescue.

The S.S. Viking, Capt. A. Kean, sailed this morning with supplies for the three steamers Eagle, Diana, and Prospero which are jammed. In the event of the Viking not being able to reach the steamers, supplies will be conveyed to them over the ice. The Prospero has 66 people on board, and has been en route over a month. The Eagle has a crew of twenty on board. The steamers are said to be running short of coal. Capt. Taylor of the Eagle reported yesterday that his ship was 12 miles N. E. of Fogo.

Not in Telegram.

The Evening Telegram has not published any article by Mr. Arthur English on the inappropriateness of the Indian Cup Plant as the Newfoundland Emblem, as stated by Rev. Canon Smith in the opening paragraph of his letter in the Daily News of today's date.

M. C. L. L.—To-night's Debate: "Resolved—That there should be a State Industrial School for Delinquent Boys." Leaders: Revs. W. R. Eudgen and Dr. M. Fowick.—Feb. 5, 11.

Flour.

At a meeting this morning of four importers the Chairman of the Food Board was able to announce that arrangements had practically been finalized under which the surcharge of two dollars imposed by the Canadian Wheat Board on flour exported from Canada is lifted as far as Newfoundland is concerned. Newfoundland is also able to get pre-war patents, or as we call it, white flour, just as we have since the war ended. This will be good news to most people. The Food Board will be glad to give all the information required by flour importers. There is no indication whatever that supplies of flour will be restricted.

Portia's Stormy Trip.

The S. S. Portia which arrived yesterday reports a very stormy round trip. The ship left here three weeks ago and encountered violent weather and had to harbor at Trepassay for two days. After crossing Placentia Bay storms were again met and the steamer had to anchor at St. Lawrence for four days. All the way to Port aux Basques there was little change in weather conditions. Owing to ice in the Gulf the steamer did not go to Sydney for bunker coal. Seven cars of freight from the Reid Co. were taken on board at Port aux Basques. A number of fishing schooners and several foreign going vessels which were frozen in at various ports were freed during the trip. Capt. Connors says the trip was the worst in his experience the frost sometimes being intense, the mercury dropping to from 15 to 20 below zero. The ship will be ready to sail again on Saturday.

St. Andrew's Annual Meeting.

The St. Andrew's Society held their annual meeting in the Smallwood Building last night. In the absence of the President, Mr. Thos. Curran was appointed chairman. The annual report showed the Society's affairs to be in a satisfactory condition. After the adoption of the reports the election of officers took place with the following result: President—Mr. H. D. Reid. 1st V.P.—Mr. A. K. Lumsden. 2nd V.P.—Mr. R. G. Ross. Secy.—Treas.—Mr. D. Johnston. Asst. Treas.—Mr. W. Curran. Executive Committee—Messrs. T. Curran, J. C. Hepburn, D. McIntosh, A. G. Gibb, J. Wallace, J. A. Carmichael, W. B. Eadie, D. Forsyth, D. McFarlane. Auditors—Messrs. J. B. Mitchell and M. Parsons. The customary votes of thanks were passed to the various committees for their excellent work during the past year, particularly to the Social Committee and Ladies' Auxiliary, who had been the means of augmenting the finances of the Society to a considerable extent. The meeting closed at 10 p.m. after passing a vote of thanks to the chairman.

An Interesting Anniversary.

One hundred and fourteen years ago, to-day, the first meeting, to consider the formation of the Benevolent Irish Society, was held in the London Tavern. Could the founders of this institution only see the wonderful strides made by the Society in its over a century's career they would indeed have reason to be proud of their initial movement. The B.I.S. has a proud record, and well it is being maintained.

Low Temperature.

On February 6th, 1876, thermometers in the city registered 18 degrees below zero. Two years later no snow had fallen until this date. In the year of grace 1920, St. John's has all it wants of snow and frost, and could do with a little less of both.

Obituary.

MISS ADDIE HORWOOD. Miss Addie Horwood, aunt of Sir William Horwood, Chief Justice, passed away at her home Balsam Street yesterday afternoon. The deceased lady was in her 91st year, and up to the time of her death, had a clear memory. Miss E. M. Horwood and Miss Gertrude Horwood are nieces. The Telegram extends sympathy to the relatives of the deceased lady.

Personal Mention.

The many friends of the Hon. A. F. Goodridge will regret to learn that he is very ill at his home, and during the last couple of days his condition has given serious concern to his family.

DOCK ENGINEERS STRIKE.—One of the engineers at the dry dock premises was suspended by the Superintendent yesterday morning, and as a result all the other engineers employed there quit work, until such time as their fellow worker is reinstated. A settlement had not been reached up to last night.

At the Majestic.

Ethel Clayton in the Leaky Production, "Women's Weapons", starred at the Majestic Theatre last evening, when a full house greeted her appearance on the screen. This is a picture of love, and was seen with unflinching interest. An author, although married, becomes infatuated by a lady artist, who is illustrator for one of his books. The lady returns the affection and the result is that Ethel Clayton, who is the wife, takes a second place in his heart. From here begins the story proper and the way in which she recaptures him and his affections will be of great interest to those who see the picture to-night, when it will be repeated. In addition to the feature a Mutt and Jeff cartoon was shown. This cartoon, which is the first Mutt and Jeff one to be seen at the Majestic provokes continuous laughter.

The French in Newfoundland.

Beginning in to-morrow's issue there will appear the first installment of a most interesting article on "The French in Newfoundland," from the pen of our esteemed contributor H. F. Shortis, Esq. We hope to complete this excellent and informative contribution to local literature on Saturday.

Their services were not required, however, as a small blaze, caused by a piece of paper igniting from a funnel in an adjoining room, was put out by employees before any damage was done.

R. I. S. OFFICERS RESIGNING.—On next week preparations for the election of officers of the R. I. S. will be made. Hon. J. D. Ryan, for 25 years the Society's President, is resigning and will not again accept nomination. It is likely, also, that the other officers will resign, so that an entirely new table will have to be elected.
