Political Paragraphs.

It was May the 3rd that Governor Darling, who gave us Responsible Government, was sworn in. It will be May 3rd when Sir Richard Squires, who made a farce of this Responsible Government, will be turned out. Isn't that a remarkable coincidence?

Bennett's Manifesto is the greatest pronouncement of its kind ever issued by the Leader of a Party in Newfoundland, and in direct contrast to Squires' famous one of 1919 all the promises are feasible and reasonable and will be fulfilled.

Great news is being received this week from Pogo. Mr. Long has broken into the North with a vengeance and destroyed the notion that Coaker has all the Districts there in his pocket.

The "Reign of Misrule" will be over on May 3rd and business men and fishermen will be able to enter on preparations for the fishery with confidence that they will not be interfered with by crazy legislation.

The meeting held at Petty Harbor held by Monroe, Hunt and Linegar last night destroys Squires' chance of getting a single vote there. The voters there are all fishermen and they want to carry on their industry free from Coaker interference.

The Red Cross boat took away over 100 more emigrants this week—mostly young men, the hope of the country. This is amongst many the greatest curse of the Squires-Coaker Government.

If Squires had not made up his mind to use the Humber Deal for politics to get back to power these men would not have to go away. Get out your votes was his paramount idea finding work to keep the young men in the country was a secondary consideration.

No wonder that they denounced the Government as the ship moved out of the dock. Their fathers and brothers who are left behind will not forget to take revenge for them on Polling Day. Coaker once said "the more men that leave Newfoundland the better." And a man like that is given power to rule the country.

There are hundreds more waiting to see the result of this election, and it is a common thing to hear men who were prosperous and independent in 1919 say "if this Government is returned I will get out of the country."

There is not romance or mere sentiment of the imagination but cold hard fact and under the circumstance one should not be surprised. Water Street is almost dead this spring from a business standpoint and if Squires and Coaker get control again it will be "dead and buried and the grass growing on the grave."

We want to tell the South West Coast that Coaker's Nationalization of Fish means that the fish caught there will be kept out of the Oporto market till whatever date it pleases Coaker and that will not be till his own fish is ready. The advantage of getting into the market in July and August will be taken from them, the same as it was under the old Fish Regulations. This will kill the fishermen's price as well as the merchants' price.

It is a pertinent question to ask Sir Richard Squires just now when he is talking and writing so much about the blessings of the Humber Deal why it is that the men who have been working out there all winter have no word of praise to say about it, and why it is that those who have returned say that it is a "frost" and that they "sponger fishing on one meal a day." Yes there is another side to the Humber Deal which Squires wants to keep hidden till after the votes are all in.

Reduction of taxation and the curtailment of the orgy of extravagant expenditure is the only hope for this country. We can't live if we have to carry the burden that Squires has put on our backs the past three years. The fishermen can't make the fishery pay well enough to get a decent living under the present taxes. This Government will make no reduction. They want millions more to boodle and squander. The only remedy is to turn 'em out May the 3rd.

Turned out they certainly will be. The sentiment against them grows stronger every day. This is why the election was hastened for May the 3rd. If it was put off till the middle of May they would not get a man. The idea has taken hold of the public mind all over the country that conditions were never worse and any change must be for the better. They believe the slogan will come true.

BENNETT & BETTER TIMES.

A very good house for the mother hen when she comes off the nest is a barrel turned on its side. Put clean earth in the bottom and make a hollow for a nest in the rear, put in some dry leaves and all will be well. The straw is not as good as leaves, because it is hollow and provides a good breeding place for vermin.

Household Notes.

A delicious salad combination is seeded raisins and chopped green peppers marinated with French dressing. All the baby's milk bottles should be rinsed immediately after feeding to prevent any milk from souring in the bottle.

If carrots seem tasteless to your family, try adding a spoonful of vinegar and one of sugar to the water in which they are boiled.

For the sake of novelty, shape your croquettes like lamb chops and put a piece of raw macaroni into the end of each to look like the bone.

To save chicks put several stones in each pan or trough in which you keep water for your chicken; then when the little chicks happen to get into the pan they can get out by means of these stones and not drown.

A good sauce for meat is made as follows. Melt 2 tablespoons fat, add 3 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, pepper, 1 1/2 cups stock, 1/4 cup vinegar. Raise to boil and add 1/2 cup chopped ripe olives and 1/2 cup chopped raisins.
