BOY SCOUTS' FIELD DAY.
Although favoured with one of the days of the year there was a disappointingly small attendance at St. John's Field yesterday afternoon to attend the first athletic meet of the Boy Scouts. Among those present were Lordship Bishop White, Sir John and Lady Horwood, Dr. W. Macdonell, W. G. and Mrs. Gosling, and as well as many others interested in the movement. The various events by the Scouts and Girl Scouts were interesting and enjoyable, and the different races were well contested. Mr. W. J. Higgins, field captain and he was assisted by members of the A.A.A. and the Boy Scouts Committee. The Mount Cashel was in attendance and rendered excellent musical selections. HALIFAX TO NEW YORK YACHT RACE.
An international yacht race from Halifax to New York and return, with 30 American boats and several Canadian entrants, is in the making for next year. Realizing the importance attached to such an event, the Halifax Herald management has decided to foster the race for late next August or early in September. The race would replace the annual Bermuda to New York race which had 22 American starters recently.

While at Lunenburg recently, a prominent Halifax man was informed by American yachtsmen that they would prefer a Halifax to New York race to the Bermuda event and that they would guarantee that at least 30 American yachts would start.

The big Regatta Week at Bermuda is always a feature event of the season, but the Americans prefer Halifax for a starting point because of its many advantages. Prominent American yachtsmen lauded the work of the Halifax Herald in promoting the big International Schooner Race which they stated has helped wonderfully to stimulate interest in yacht racing the world over.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL.
The T.A. decisively defeated St. Mary's last evening by a score of 4 to 0. The first half produced some brilliant play, particularly by the St. Mary's defence and goalies and it was not until nearly the close of the first period that Bailey first drew blood for the victors. In crossing over, the T.A. lads assumed full control and Aspell, Williams and Green registered one each. Despite the fact that both were tallenders and it was a holiday evening, there was not a defaulter when the roll was called, and the game got away on time. This surely is an object lesson to the Senior League and let us hope they will benefit by it.

AT THE GOLF LINKS.
An enjoyable game between the Presidents' and Vice-Presidents' teams was played on Tuesday, the V.P. team winning comfortably. Afterwards a dinner was given to the winners by the losers and an enjoyable time spent.

Uncommon Sense.
"NOW AND THEN" MEN.

(By John Blake.)

"Now and then," said the boss, pointing to a young man at a nearby desk, "that fellow goes out and lands a big order. He's a surprise to me. Why doesn't he do it right along?"

"This youth was probably a regular 'now and then' man."

There are plenty of them in the world. They all have unusual ability, but they hate to use it too often.

There have been "now and then" golfers who have astonished the world at times. But if they win championships, they never hold them very long.

There has been brilliant "now and then" military commanders who have won one battle each, and after that sunk into obscurity.

There is no secret about these "now and then" men.

They have talent—perhaps genius, sometimes.

But they are lazy. And neither talent nor genius is of much use to its owner unless unremitting industry goes with it.

The "now and then" man likes to shine before his fellows. He likes success, but not enough to drive himself to his work.

When conditions are just right, when his digestion is perfect, and his energy boiling, and it is a pleasant day, he will extend himself, and beat his fellows all hollow at what they happen to be doing.

But when he has done this he is satisfied.

The devil of laziness gets hold of him and persuades him that it is more pleasant to rest than to work, and that after all he can go out and do something big whenever he wants to.

But that is where the devil of laziness departs from the truth.

If you are only a "now and then" man you do not do big things often enough to make them habitual, really to master the mechanics of them.

With the passing years your power to do them at all leaves you, and then you are a "never at all" man instead of a "now and then" man.

Mediocrity must work for what it gets, and it can become in time successful.

The "now and then" man has a big start in the world, but he never uses it properly and presently the man with far less mental capacity overtakes and passes him.

You know the story of the "now and then" hare, who was beaten by the

SOME MEMORY.

Blinks, after having his friend Jinks to dinner, was telling him about the remarkable memory of his little son Bobby.

"And do you think he will remember me?" asked Jinks.

"Remember you? Why, certainly, he will."

An hour later they heard he greeted the house, and after Jinks had greeted Mrs. Blinks, he called Bobby over to him.

"And do you remember me, my little man?"

"Course I do. You're the man that pa brought home last year, and ma was so wild about it that she didn't speak to pa for a week."

Scottish Parish Minister: "I am sorry to hear your wife is so poorly, Saunders. What is really the matter with her?"

Crofters: "Dead, sir. I can hardly tell ye, but if she's no' better soon, I'll be quite knocked up myself doin' her work!"
