Committee will receive Moulton's statement this afternoon, and if he will permit cross examination, they intend to complete it before evening, and then call Mr. Beecher before them to-night. Moulton was yesterday closeted with Tilton and his lawyer, and Beecher's friends say his statement will be as strong as he can make it, in support of Tilton. The Herald says, the letters in possession of Moulton will tend to show Mr. Beecher and Mrs. Tilton to have confessed infeorespondence with each other, to 'rest hiding,' whatever that may mean. Mayor Hunter, of Brooklyn, is credited with the following:—'I think when all facts come out it will be shown that this has been a case of blackmail all through, and blackmailing has been Jone through the medium of Moulton; I guess Mr. Beecher has been struck very heavily too."
