means unlearned. He read widely an a retentive memory, which remained with him through life, stored his mind with a great deal of useful knowledge. In 1864 he was married to Ann Thacker, who through all these years has been a faithful devoted wife. His conversion took place the year after his marriage at the Circus Chapel, Bradford street, Birmingham, under the ministry of the Rev. Mr. Barnett.

This was the turning point of his ambitions

He began work at once in connection with the young men's Bible class. His essays on Bible themes at that early period in his experience revealed a very promising spirit-

In 1870 Mr. and Mrs. Mason came

Canada. They landed in Pt. Hope in April and Mr. Mason soon found employ-Through Mr. Craig's influence and kindly aid he was enabled to carry out a long cherished desire to fit himself for the gospel ministry. Feeling the way was of the Lord he accordingly left Port Hope and entered Woodstock College in the autumn of '72, graduating in '77. His college career was a successful one. Under the wise and spiritual training of Dr. Fyfe his soul grew apace with his mental powers, and much of the spirit of that devoted man of God was imparted to him. His was a life long devotion to the one whose life and teaching had been such an inspiration to him during college days. As student-pastor he preached for three successive summers at Ailsa Craig, Parkhill and Bobcaygeon.

Upon graduation in 1877 he received a call to the pastorate of the Calton and Malahide churches. The long years of useful service on these fields has proven that his was a divine call to a work, the greatness of which only eternity shall reveal.

His ordination took place soon after his arrival at the Calton church. For fourteen years he was pastor of the two churches. His earlier work was one of large additions.

While in later years not so many additions were made. His work in building up christian character was by no means less earnest, or less important. Due largely to his indefatigable efforts the commodious church home at Calton was built and dedi-

The old saying that "a room nicely papered is half furnished" is as true now as it ever was.

Two or three dollars spent in wall paper makes a greater difference in a room than five or six spent in any other room decorations.

Two and three dollars is what it costs to paper a room 12x15 with our ten cent and shilling papers. If you use our five cent papers the cost would not be quite a dollar.

If you are going to paper this spring don't fail to see our samples when you get ready to buy. In our enormous range of patterns and colors you will be able to find just the kind you want.

We regret to record the death of Mrs. James Bird who, after an illness of five months was called to her heavenly home on Saturday morning April 20th, at the comparatively early age of 44 years. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. Falls of North Dorchester, but has resided in this place for over 18 years. She was a consistent member of the Methhdist church and bore her sufferings with christian fortitude. She was of a retiring disposition but never hesitated to do what duty demanded, and her hand was ever extended when help was required. She was a devoted wife and loving mother and will be very much missed in the home. Besides a sorrowing husband, she leaves one son Byron and two daughters, Flossie and Iva to mourn her loss. The funeral took place on Monday the Rev. L. W. Reid preaching a very feeling sermon from John 14th to the
