H. W. Harris, of the Governor's road, near Falkland, passed away Wednesday in his flat year. The deceased was one of the his flat year. The deceased was one of the odds: men in that part of the country. Ho was born in Vermont State and came to Canada about 70 years ago, taking up his abode on the Governor's road, about 44 years ago, where he died. Mr. Harris held a Crown deed, he being the only man in that section who possessed one. He had been married 65 years, and leaves a wife and eight children. Mrs. Harris and family have the sympathy of their many friends in this their sad hour of bereavement.

G. H. Armstrong, mathematical teacher of the Paris high school, has been called away suddenly to his mother's beddied at Vroxeter.

John Rudolph, Harrisburg, was before a magistrate a few days ago on a charge of selling liquor after hours—evidently through a misunderstanding. Mr. Rudolph is an honorable and law-abiding citizen. As might have been expected, the charge was not proven and the case was dismissed.
