She was the only daughter of the late Mr. John Duncan of Springbank, East Williams, and is survived by her mother and four brothers, one of whom is Mr. James Duncan of this city. Miss Duncan was born in East Williams and spent her life on the same farm. The funeral takes place tomorrow to Nairn Cemetery.

GIVEN A WATCH.
 Mr. G. D. Atkinson, who is to assume the duties of organist at Dundas Center Methodist Church in this city, was pleasantly surprised at the summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Eaton, Balsam avenue, Toronto, Friday, when he was presented with a handsome gold watch by the choir of Wesley Methodist Church. The presentation was made by Mr. F. W. Tisdale.

CAPOOSE WAS WRECKED.
 A C. P. R. capoose was wrecked in the East London yards about noon on Friday. The capoose was attached to a number of other cars that were being shunted when it broke away from the rest of the train and ran onto the main line. At the same time the morning express from Toronto was entering the yards and the engineer could bring it to a standstill it crashed into the end of the capoose, wrecking it. The engine of the express was damaged only slightly, and none of the passengers were injured.

WATERMAN'S CAR JUMPED TRACK
 Substituted into Rolling Mills Yards It Topped Over Bank.

On Saturday afternoon the rear car of a train being shunted in the yards of the London Rolling Mills Company jumped the rails at a switch, and before the accident was noticed the rear car was bumped along over the ties for a distance of probably 50 yards. Before a stop was made it became detached from the rest of the train, and jumped from the front of the car, rolling into the ditch down an embankment about seven or eight feet. A boy was in the car, but he escaped with only a severe fright and a bad shaking-up, but was uninjured. It took a wrecking crew all day yesterday to get the car on the rails again.

WILLIAM OWEN'S PLAY
 "When Louis XI. Was King" Given a Satisfactory Performance.

William Owen appeared at the Grand Opera House on Saturday in "When Louis XI. Was King," a comic opera which he wrote, and which he has written the libretto for the book of that name by Sir Walter Scott. The company presenting it is chiefly interesting owing to the fact that the leading lady is a sister of the famous Canadian actress, Julia Arthur. This is Miss Jeanette Lewis, whose acting in this play, one of her first ventures, is most satisfactory, showing as it does considerable promise for this young and talented Hamiltonian. She resembles somewhat her more renowned sister, but has, of course, not developed the latter's wonderful ability and dramatic gifts.

Mr. John Pringle Elected to the Board—Resolution of Condolence.

At a well attended meeting of the Western Fair Board held Saturday afternoon Mr. John Pringle, manager of the Board of Toronto, was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Isaac Waterman. A resolution regarding the death of the letter was passed, expressing sorrow and sympathy. Other business directed by the board was transacted, and the board listened also to the criticism of an alderman, who expressed his opinion that he did not have a big enough say in the management of the exhibition.

Those present were President Gartshore (in the chair), Messrs. R. Cartwright, George McCormick, Col. Little, Ald. Abram, William Fleming, George Scatcherd, Ald. Cooper, C. E. Trebilcock, A. Bogue, William Gammage, Ald. Becher, Mayor Beck, William Moore, Ald. Matthews, T. Hardy Shore, Col. Leys, Supt. Brown and Secretary Nelles.

A communication was read from the exhibitors of horses in reference to the appointment of an associate judge for one of the classes of horses and the matter was referred to a committee.

Mr. Morgan, a poultry supplies dealer, wrote asking for space, according to his own estimate, he had said that there was not room for his exhibit. The difficulty with the exhibitors was that the exhibit consisting of the president, the chairman of the poultry and agricultural committees and Supt. Brown. The chairman of the latter committee, Mr. Morgan, was on the west side of the agricultural building, providing he did not have the exhibitors' consent to the use of the stalls and that the exhibit be in place not later than Sept. 12.

Mr. Bogue brought up the matter of sending someone to Toronto, and on his motion, seconded by Mr. McCormick, it was resolved to send Messrs. Trebilcock and Moore there to look after London's interests.

 The following resolution was passed: "The directors of the Western Fair Association, at their first meeting after the death of the late Isaac Waterman, desire to take the opportunity of expressing to Mrs. Waterman their most sincere sympathy for her loss, and to express their appreciation of Mr. Waterman's valuable services to the fair."

TO ENTER APPEAL.
 The Harrison liquor case will be appealed. So says Mr. Harrison's counsel, Mr. McEvoy. This is the case in which a policeman gave testimony to the effect that the hotelkeeper sold liquor on a Sunday evening, though seven men were brought forward who swore that they were the men present on the occasion referred to and they did not see any liquor sold. The police magistrate took the word of the policeman against these witnesses. The defence held that there was no evidence for conviction and will take the case to another court.

A CIVIC GREENHOUSE.
 Another suggestion was made as to what should be done in the matter of getting a civic greenhouse. The old one in Victoria Park, it will be remembered, was ordered to be torn down some time ago, and when the matter of the appointment of a park ranger came a few weeks ago at a meeting of the board of works, the mayor suggested that the water commissioner be interviewed to see if arrangements could be made to have the city greenhouse located at the waterworks. Saturday he came forward again with a suggestion as to this matter, asking for an expression of opinion from the board as to the advisability of the water board putting up the required conservatory at Queen's Park. He gave reasons why it would be a good thing to have a greenhouse, but the matter was not discussed, it being referred to a committee, who will report upon the desirability or otherwise of taking this step.

The president asked the mayor if it was the intention of the hospital trust to erect a tent on the grounds as formerly. The mayor assured the board that the trust would do the same as it did last year in this respect.

Ald. Cooper was the civic father who found fault with the way things were managed. The cause of his discontent was that the had been called to a meeting of the planning committee, of which he is a member, and that when he got there he was not wanted, according to his own estimate, he had said that there was not room for his exhibit. The difficulty with the exhibitors was that the exhibit consisting of the president, the chairman of the poultry and agricultural committees and Supt. Brown. The chairman of the latter committee, Mr. Morgan, was on the west side of the agricultural building, providing he did not have the exhibitors' consent to the use of the stalls and that the exhibit be in place not later than Sept. 12.

Rev. Dr. Hugh Johnston, of Baltimore at First Methodist.

Anniversary of St. Andrew's Church To Be Celebrated.

Rev. Dr. Hugh Johnston, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Baltimore, occupied the pulpit of the First Methodist Church of this city last evening. He is staying with his cousin, Dr. Eccles, and is a divine well-known to the people of London. It was in the old Queen's Avenue Church, of which the present First Methodist Church is the successor, that he was ordained, in 1865, that he could not prevent a free moral being from sinning.

He spoke of Christ as a manifestation of love, and everything that is not love is sin. He said that the ideal of perpetuity of being, it was more than that; it was intensity of being, it was a life of purity, of love and of communion.

REV. DR. SHEARS A VISITOR.
 Among the visiting clergymen in London yesterday was Rev. Dr. Shears, of the British Wesleyan Conference. Dr. Shears occupied the pulpit of the First Methodist Church in the morning, and in the evening he spoke at the Wesleyan Street Methodist Church. At both places he was listened to by large congregations. Dr. Shears is one of the most prominent members of the British Conference.

The church was founded in September, 1873, although for some time prior to then the members held services in their homes on Sunday next the sacrament will be celebrated.

The pastor of the First Congregational Church, Rev. D. S. Hamilton, resumed his pastoral duties yesterday afternoon, after his absence of several weeks.

The pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church was last evening occupied by Rev. Dr. McMullen, of Woodstock.

AT ADELAIDE STREET CHURCH.
 Rev. H. C. Speller, who has a host of friends in London and its neighborhood, conducted the services yesterday at Adelaide Street Baptist Church, and gave two powerful and practical sermons. The morning discourse was based on the words found in John xiv, 1 to 4, in which Christ is talking farewell to his disciples, after instituting the Lord's Supper. The preacher dwelt on the clear promise in these words of Christ's second coming. He spoke of heart trouble as the severest of all troubles, but in following the Master's path,—"The peace that passeth all understanding." Mr. Speller's text in the evening was: "In all thy ways acknowledge him and he shall direct thy paths."—Proverbs iii, 6. The lesson plainly drawn from these words was that a personal knowledge of God was the grand essential of life. Man glorifies his creator, and through the Saviour the believer could hold eternal communion with his creator, no matter how apparently commonplace and trivial.

Rev. James Rolfe, pastor of the King Street Presbyterian Church, occupied his pulpit yesterday after an absence of several weeks on vacation. The ladies of the church marked his return by decorating the church with flowers, an act which drew from the pastor some words of thanks. Mr. Rolfe also took occasion to thank the people for the very kind way in which they had received him in their homes on his first visitation, which he had just completed before leaving for his holidays. The congregations at both the services were large.
