LONDON AND DISTRICT

Sergeant M. O'Connell, of No. 1 Company, is in Toronto attending the Ontario rifle matches.

Miss Lena McCullough's many friends will be glad to hear that she is recovering from her recent illness.

The latest pot at Wolsley Barracks is a golden eagle, which measured 7 feet 3 inches from tip to tip of the wings. It is only a young bird. It belongs to Pte. Preston.

Quartermaster Sergeant Instructor Hobkirk, of No. 1 Company, has gone to Amherstburg to act as instructor for the Twenty-first Regiment, during its four days' camp there.

St. Mary's Church congregation intend to make another effort further to reduce the debt on the church, and will run a refreshment booth at the fair this evening.

The Western Ontario Good Roads Association meets in the board room on the exhibition grounds, Toronto, on Tuesday and Wednesday the 8th and 9th of September, at 10 o'clock each day. A number of gentlemen experienced in road-making will read papers or deliver short addresses.

A very pleasant evening was spent last Thursday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson, 88 Clarence street, the occasion being the celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary. The evening was spent in games, singing and music. A very large number of friends assembled and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson received numerous and cordial presents and good wishes from all.

The telegram received by the Irish Benevolent Society from King Edward in reply to that sent his majesty on the occasion of his recent visit to Ireland, and which was subsequently presented to Mr. Denis M. O'Connell, suggested that the congratulatory message be sent, is now on view in the window of Mr. O. B. Graves, 222 Dundas and Clarence streets. The telegram is very highly prized by Mr. M. O'Connell, who is one of London's most loyal Irishmen and has always been a warm admirer of the present King.

THE GARDEN COMPETITION.
The judges in the garden competition expect to complete their inspection this week, and to be able to announce the prize winners the following week. The work of the judges has been hindered to some extent by the continued wet weather.

EDGAR JEFFREY DID WELL.
Ald. Hugh Stevenson arrived home Saturday night from Toronto, where he attended the Ontario rifle matches. He attended the shoot. Ald. Stevenson states that as a whole the Londoners did not do as well as was expected. The team, made of a splendid showing, and has come to Ottawa to be present at the I. R. A. matches.

DEATH OF MRS. WADDELL.
The death of Mrs. Hulda Waddell, wife of Rev. J. W. Waddell, of Shelburne, occurred Sunday at Victoria Hospital. The deceased lady had undergone an operation. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, of this city, and was 57 years of age. Interment will be at Exeter, the funeral taking place in the G. T. R. depot on Tuesday morning at 8:15 o'clock.

DEATH OF MISS DUNCAN.
The death of Miss Bella Duncan, of East Williams, took place on Saturday. Miss Duncan had been ill for two and a half years with pulmonary trouble. She was the only daughter of the late Mr. James Duncan, of Springbank, East Williams, and is survived by her mother and four brothers, of whom the youngest, Mr. James Duncan, druggist, of this city. Miss Duncan was born in East Williams and spent her life on the same farm. The funeral takes place tomorrow to Springbank Cemetery.

GIVEN A WATCH.
Mr. G. D. Atkinson, who is to assume the duties of organist at Dundas Center Methodist Church in this city, was pleasantly surprised at the summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Eaton, Balsam avenue, Toronto, Friday, when he was presented with a handsome gold watch by the choir of Wesley Methodist Church. The presentation was made by Mr. F. W. Tisdale.

CABOOSE WAS WRECKED.
A C. P. R. caboose was wrecked in the East London yards about noon on Friday. The caboose was attached to a number of other cars that were being shunted, when it broke away from the rest of the train and ran into the main line. At the same time the engine, express from Toronto was entering the yards and before the engineer could bring it to a standstill it crashed into the end of the caboose, completely wrecking it. The engine of the express was damaged only slightly, and none of the passengers of the train were injured.

THE SPRINGBANK SHOW.
A pleasant time is assured those who take in the attractions at Springbank this week.

Mack and Elliott, the clever pair of entertainers who have been greeted with great success at the Springbank, returned for this week also, though at increased expense. The act put on by Mack and Elliott is brilliant and clever, and is clever, sparkling and bright.

Besides these clever entertainers are the "Three Troubadours," who present very amusing creation entitled "A Mixup".

An eccentric comedian, Charles Hecrow, does a turn that is very original and new. There are also the famous juggler, and Miss Maud Beatrice, a very pleasing entertainer.

It took a wrecking crew all day Sunday to get the car on the rails again.

CAR JUMPED TRACK

Shunted Into Rolling Mills Yards It Topped Over Bank.

On Saturday afternoon the rear car of a train being shunted in the yards of the London Rolling Mills Company jumped the rails at a switch, and before the accident was noticed the rear was bumped along over the ties for a distance of probably 50 yards. Before a stop was made it struck a pile of lumber from the front trucks, the box jumped into the ditch down an embankment about seven or eight feet. A boy in the car at the time, but beyond a severe fright and a bad shaking-up he was unhurt. It took a wrecking crew all day Sunday to get the car on the rails again.

SHORT COURSE ENDED

Smith, of the fourth Regiment, Chatham; Capt. E. S. Wigle and Lieut. A. E. Padden, of the fifth Regiment, London; Lieut. D. B. White, of the sixth Regiment, Niagara-on-the-Lake; Lieut. W. J. Heenan, of the seventh Regiment, Chatham; Lieut. W. J. Heenan, of the eighth Regiment, Waterloo; Lieut. W. J. Heenan, of the ninth Regiment, London.

WILLIAM OWEN'S PLAY

"When Louis XI. Was King" Given a Satisfactory Performance.

William Owen appeared at the Grand Opera House on Saturday in "When Louis XI. Was King." A romantic drama built up around Queen Joan, the character of the book of that name by Sir Walter Scott. The company presenting it is chiefly interesting owing to the fact that the leading lady is a sister of the famous Canadian actress, Julia Arthur. This is Miss Jeanette Lewis, whose acting in this play, one of her first ventures, is most satisfactory, showing as it does considerable promise for this young actress. Her husband, Mr. Owen, is a well-known actor, and he was well supported by the double role of king and cardinal with much credit to himself. The balance of the support was not large, but was very acceptable.

EVERYTHING INDICATES LARGE FAIR THIS YEAR

Directors Meet to Put Finishing Touches to All Work.

Mr. John Pringle Elected to the Board—Resolution of Condolence.

At a well attended meeting of the Western Fair Board held Saturday afternoon Mr. John Pringle, manager of the Bank of Toronto, was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Isaac Waterman. A resolution regarding the death of the latter was passed, expressing sorrow and sympathy. Other business directly connected with the fair was transacted, and the board listened also to the criticism of an alderman, who expressed his opinion that he did not have a big enough say in the management of the exhibition.

Those present were President Gresham (in the chair), Messrs. R. C. Atkinson, George McCormick, Col. Little, Ald. Abram, William Fleming, George Seabrook, Ald. Cooper, C. E. Trebilcock, A. Bogue, William Gammage, Ald. Becher, Mayor Beck, William Moore, Ald. Matthews, T. Hardy, Shore Col. Leys, Supt. Brown and Secretary Nelles.

A communication was read from the exhibitors of horses in reference to the appointment of an associate judge for one of the classes of horses and the matter was referred to a committee.

Mr. Morgan, a poultry supplies dealer, wrote asking for space when he got there he was not wanted, according to his way of calculating matters. He claimed that when he got to the meeting he found that there was nothing to do, everything having been cut and dried. He said the whole fair was run by a clique. There were a few members of the board who had all the say in the management and the rest were not consulted.

No motion was made of his charges. Before the meeting closed one of the members of the board who had all the say in the management and the rest were not consulted.

Mr. Bogue brought up the matter of the late Isaac Waterman, and on his motion, seconded by Mr. McCormick, it was resolved to send Messrs. Atkinson and Nelles to look after London's interests.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.
The following resolution was passed: "The directors of the Western Fair Association, at this their first meeting since the death of the late Isaac Waterman, desire to take the opportunity of expressing to Mrs. Waterman their most sincere sympathy with her in her sad bereavement, and also to place on record their appreciation of Mr. Waterman's valuable services."

During the two years in which he served on the board, he was untiring in his devotion to the interests of the fair, more particularly in the main building department, of which he was chairman. He was obliging and pleasant to all with whom he came in contact.

"In his death the association has suffered a severe loss."

A CIVIC GREENHOUSE.

Another suggestion was made as to what should be done in the matter of getting a civic greenhouse. The old one in Victoria Park, it will be remembered, was ordered to be torn down some time ago, and when the matter of the appointment of a park ranger came up a few weeks ago at a meeting of the board of works, the mayor suggested that the water commissioners be interviewed to see if arrangements could be made to have the city greenhouse located at the waterworks. Saturday he came forward again with a suggestion as to this matter, asking for an expression of opinion from the board as to the advisability of the fair board putting up the required conservatory at Queen's Park. He gave reasons why it would be a good thing to have it there, but the matter was not discussed, it being referred to a committee, who will report upon the desirability or otherwise of taking this action.

The president asked the mayor if it was the intention of the board to erect a tent on the grounds as formerly. The mayor assured the board that the tent would be the same as it did last year in this respect.

Ald. Cooper was the civic father who found fault with the way things were run. He found that there was nothing to do, everything having been cut and dried. He said the whole fair was run by a clique. There were a few members of the board who had all the say in the management and the rest were not consulted.

TO ENTER APPEAL.

The Harrison liquor case will be appealed. So says Mr. Harrison's counsel, Mr. McEvoy. This is the case in which a policeman gave testimony to the effect that the hotelkeeper sold liquor on a Sunday evening, though seven men were brought forward who swore that they were the men present on the occasion referred to, and they did so by liquor sold. The police magistrate took the word of the policeman against these witnesses. The defense held that there was no evidence for conviction and will take the case to another court.
