The supply of small stuff was the features. Sales were, in all lines, with the possible exception of apples, which are over supplied. Prices rule steady to firmer. Grain-The supply of oats continues to be small. From reports furnished us by a considerable number of the leading farmers, there is every indication of a shortage, and it is expected that present prices will be paid and probably a considerable increase between now and the time when the new oat crop will be placed on the market. Prices are a shade higher, at $1 25 to $1 27 per cwt. Wheat sells at $1 05 per bushel. Barley sells at $1 to $1 10 per cwt. the latter price for seed barley.

Hay and Straw — The supply of hay was not as large as in the previous week. Sales, however, are slow, owing to the large quantity offered in the previous week. Prices rule at $8 and $8 50 for the best loads. sibly he will change it, for, it is said, that the local police have in their pos-session a bunch of keys that may bring the crime home to the prisoner. The keys were stolen from the cash register, and it is understood that a week or more before Doyle was arrested, Down succeeded, by some means or other, in getting possession of them.

This morning, Mr. Mckellop, crown attorney, was not prepared to proceed with the trial of Doyle on this charge, and the case was adjourned. Doyle will be arraigned on Monday next for sentence.

Doyle is a member of a Toronto family, his father having been a crossing watchman in that city for many years. Like his brother, "Shorty Billy," he early began to follow a life of crime, and has seen the inside of the Central and the penitentiary on more than one occasion, "Shorty Billy" was the most desperate of three sons, Another, according to the information that has eached the police here, has just completed a term in the Elmira, New York, State, prison. Love of excitement and a daring spirit are said to have been mainly responsible for the three brothers taking to criminal pursuits.

Time Tests All Things

Father Time tests well the merits of all things. The fact that a concern has been doing business for a great number of years guarantees that the standard and quality of the goods offered has been high and also speaks & loudly of years of fair and honest dealing with the

As early as 1868, George Peters was already known in London as a manufacturer of the high-grade confectionery.

Thirty-seven years has served only to enhance and enlarge that reputation.
