

STOTT DENIES HE MADE LOVE TO HATTON GIRL

On Stand in Breach of Promise Case At Detroit.

SAYS NO IMPROPRIETIES

Never Even Held Hands, He Swears As Jurors Smile.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

DETROIT, July 15.—There were two high lights in the testimony given today by Arthur F. Stott, defendant in Judge Dugan's court in a suit for $150,000 brought by Monica Hatton, formerly of London, Ont., who alleges breach of promise of marriage. The first was his statement that he never held hands with Monica Hatton, who testified that she had been in a relationship with Stott for several years. The second was his statement that he never even held hands with Monica Hatton, who testified that she had been in a relationship with Stott for several years.

After two more witnesses had followed Stott, adjournment was taken until Monday. Stott's first examination was by the prosecution, which asked him to state the facts of his relationship with Monica Hatton. Stott denied that he had ever held hands with her, and that he had never even held hands with her.

After two more witnesses had followed Stott, adjournment was taken until Monday. Stott's first examination was by the prosecution, which asked him to state the facts of his relationship with Monica Hatton. Stott denied that he had ever held hands with her, and that he had never even held hands with her.

Despite stilling air in the courtroom, the curious rushed to fill every seat as soon as doors were opened this morning. Thereafter their number was augmented by hundreds who filled the rear of the courtroom packed the center aisle and lined the walls.

Mr. Kennedy, who is the father of Monica Hatton, said that he had been in a relationship with Stott for several years.

THE HEALTHY MAN HAS THE BEST CHANCE

Is Always Full of Life and Energy—Failures Are Weak and Bloodless.

Some men seem to have all the luck. If there are any good things going these days, it is to them. If they are businessmen they are successful; if they are workmen they get the foreman's job. They have the power of influencing people.

The same is true of women. Some have the charm that makes men seek them out; others are neglected. This is not luck. It is due to a personal gift—vitality. Men and women of this sort are never weak, puny invalids. They may not be big, but they are full of life and energy. The whole thing is a matter of good blood, good nerves and a matter of good health.

Be like this and the qualities that make for vitality and energy are purely a matter of health. By building up the blood and nerves, eliminating the excess of energy, weakness of the back, head-aches and the ineffectual sort of presence which really comes from weakness can be got rid of. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have made many weak, tired men vigorous, and many pale, dejected girls and women rosy and attractive, by improving their blood and toning up their nerves. If you are weak, low-spirited or unhealthy, try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and note their beneficial effect. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

conferences with Mr. McNamara. Nothing was brought out. "Do you recall the evening you held hands with Miss Hatton in the parlor?" asked Kennedy.

"No, I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

"No, sir," replied Stott. "I never held her hands except when I shook hands with her." "Do you mean to tell this jury you never even held Monica Hatton's hand," said Kennedy.

If Germany Makes Reparation Canada Will Get $300,000,000

LONDON, July 15.—(By Grattan O'Leary, Staff Correspondent of the Canadian Press.)—Canada's share of the reparations which Germany is to pay the British Empire has been fixed by the prime ministers' conference at $300,000,000. Under the decision of the Supreme Allied Council, the total German reparations bill is placed at $9,500,000,000 pounds, or the total German reparations bill is placed at $9,500,000,000 pounds, or the total German reparations bill is placed at $9,500,000,000 pounds.

Whether Germany will be able to pay the whole or any substantial part of this, and if so, when, is a different matter. Sir Robert Horne, the British chancellor of the exchequer, who took part in the negotiations which resulted in Canada receiving a share as announced, is understood to be hopeful that the Germans are and will be in a position to pay a considerable amount, but on the other hand a great many financial authorities hold the view that the collection of any substantial sum will be difficult if not impossible.

The division of the British share is made on the basis of casualties, pensions, expenditure and the loss of shipping by the various portions of the empire.

RANEY OPENS FIRE ON JOCKEY CLUB TO STOP BETTING

Charges Laid by Provincial Police of Operating Common Gambling House.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINDSOR, July 15.—Charges that the Windsor Jockey Club is operating a common gambling house were preferred against that organization before Police Magistrate Gundy this afternoon.

William Grier, acting head of the provincial police, laid the charges before the magistrate, who promised to consider them. This step was taken, it is understood, upon the initiative of Attorney-General W. E. Raney to determine the validity of the charges.

A similar step was taken a year ago when the late Alfred Miers was Windsor's police magistrate, but the matter never reached a conclusion, owing to Magistrate Miers' sudden death in Toronto.

It is explained that under its charter the Windsor Jockey Club may conduct races on racing. It is this betting that the attorney-general seeks to put an end to.

At the track was heavier this afternoon, thousands of dollars being poured into the machines on each race.

It is explained that under its charter the Windsor Jockey Club may conduct races on racing. It is this betting that the attorney-general seeks to put an end to.

At the track was heavier this afternoon, thousands of dollars being poured into the machines on each race.

It is explained that under its charter the Windsor Jockey Club may conduct races on racing. It is this betting that the attorney-general seeks to put an end to.

At the track was heavier this afternoon, thousands of dollars being poured into the machines on each race.

It is explained that under its charter the Windsor Jockey Club may conduct races on racing. It is this betting that the attorney-general seeks to put an end to.

At the track was heavier this afternoon, thousands of dollars being poured into the machines on each race.

It is explained that under its charter the Windsor Jockey Club may conduct races on racing. It is this betting that the attorney-general seeks to put an end to.

At the track was heavier this afternoon, thousands of dollars being poured into the machines on each race.

It is explained that under its charter the Windsor Jockey Club may conduct races on racing. It is this betting that the attorney-general seeks to put an end to.

At the track was heavier this afternoon, thousands of dollars being poured into the machines on each race.

It is explained that under its charter the Windsor Jockey Club may conduct races on racing. It is this betting that the attorney-general seeks to put an end to.

At the track was heavier this afternoon, thousands of dollars being poured into the machines on each race.

It is explained that under its charter the Windsor Jockey Club may conduct races on racing. It is this betting that the attorney-general seeks to put an end to.

At the track was heavier this afternoon, thousands of dollars being poured into the machines on each race.

It is explained that under its charter the Windsor Jockey Club may conduct races on racing. It is this betting that the attorney-general seeks to put an end to.

UNION MUSICIANS TO HAVE WAGES REDUCED

TORONTO, July 15.—Union musicians and moving picture operators will receive notice tomorrow from employers that they will have to accept a cut in wages of 25 per cent for the season beginning September 1.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

It is the same notice that was delivered to union stage employees on Thursday. If the cut is not accepted, it is understood, the union will be employed, it is announced. Failing off of business is given as the reason for the cut.

LEMON EXTRACT STOP FIGHTING, HAD REAL KICK

Chatham Grocer Brought Into Court Under Peculiar Circumstances.

CHATHAM, July 15.—When Jack Curtis alleged in police court recently that he became intoxicated through drinking extract of lemon, the police got busy immediately and located the man who sold it to him.

The defendant owns a grocery store at the corner of King and Third streets, and it is claimed that on July 1 he sold six bottles of this extract to Curtis for drinking purposes.

The case has been enlarged until Monday to permit of further investigation. The charge may be altered as the legal aspect of the situation is considered.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

STOP FIGHTING, URGES APPEAL OF CHURCHES

Every Effort Being Made To End Troubles in Belfast.

BELFAST, July 15.—At a meeting of the Ulster cabinet tonight, called to consider the situation brought about by the intermittent rioting of the last few days, it was decided to make representations to Sir General Maude, military commander in Ireland.

The heads of three Protestant churches in Belfast have issued an appeal to all those capable of exercising influence to exert their utmost efforts to secure restoration of order and a renewal of friendly relations among all classes and denominations in the community.

Tonight the New Lodge Head district was the scene of firing by a group alleged to be made up of Sinn Feiners, but when an armored car appeared the men retreated hastily.

One man was shot in the thigh. Later there was some sniping, during which a young man and a girl were wounded, the former seriously.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

This was disclosed where she had been hit by de Beker, with whom she had been living. The case was dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Must Keep Peace. Renee de Beker, a Belgian, of Raleigh, was charged with assault against his wife in the county court. When he appeared, Mrs. de Beker wanted to have the case dropped, although her husband had evidently treated her badly, as one of her eyes plainly showed.

Belting, Shafting, Hangers, Pulleys, Etc.

WE carry a larger stock of Machine Shop and Power Plant supplies than any other house in Canada.

This is not said in a boastful way. We merely wish to convey an adequate idea of the comprehensive service we offer you.

We stand prepared to supply you with any sort of equipment or supplies needed in the Machine Shop, Power Plant or Foundry, from the most ponderous machine you can think of, down to a pair of calipers; from a belt lace to the heaviest and widest belt made; from a grate bar to a battery of boilers; from a fuse to a complete generating plant; from a sand sieve to a complete foundry equipment.

No order too small or too large to get instant and expert attention from an organization of men whose knowledge of machinery will save you time and money.

THE A. R. WILLIAMS MACHINERY CO., LIMITED
64 Front Street, West, TORONTO

Branches: Halifax, St. John, Montreal, Hamilton, Winnipeg, Vancouver

If