E. V. Whelpton Attacks Literal Translation of Symbolisms in Bible.

REVIEWS PROPHECIES

Asserts Righteous Will Live Happily and Incorrigibles Perish.

With clear and simple logic Mr. E. V. Whelpton of the lecture staff of the International Bible Students' Association presented on Sunday the evidence of Scripture that this earth is to be the happy and everlasting home of the restored and perfected human race. Mr. Whelpton spoke on "Where Will Those Millions Live and How?" at the Grand Theatre, and his lecture was a continuation of Judge Rutherford's lecture at Loew's last

"To take literally, statements that are evidently symbolical leads to confusion," the speaker said, "For one passage in Scripture that tells of the earth burning up also tells of the heavens being on fire, so that of the three conditions, earth, heaven and hell, we would have left one to choose. The Scripture also says 'Death and hell shall be cast into the lake of of march fire.' Creeds of men are confusing, are thoroughly harmonious

"The destroying of the first world by a flood did not mean the destroying of the literal earth," said the evif world," the god of which is Satan. shall pass away, which it is now doing, there shall be ushered in the world to come wherein dwelleth righteousness."

World Without End.

fered. These are not selected that they might selfishly enjoy the bliss of heaven to all eternity, but that they with Christ might bring to men he gift of life which he has promised ive on the earth, the earth is where eople die.

"The punishment for sin is death by a gradual process, which comes about through lack of perfect food. Precautions were taken that the first pair who were disobedient should not eat of the tree of life and live for When in the near future men shall "beat their swords into ploughshares and spears into pruningfrom the earth the nourishment necessary to sustain life indefinitely con-tingent upon obedience to the creator.

Predicts Better Life. Then the "earth shall yield her inrease"; "the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose"; "the wilderness and solitary place shall be glad for them," and "every man sit under his own vine and fig tree," and "none molest or make them afraid," as landlords do now. Jesus taught us to pray "Thy kingdom come" to this earth: Daniel's vision shows the next universal dominion to be that of Christ and His church, who will establish God's kingdom. That king-dom is to stand for ever; therefore he earth must stand for ever, and that is the declaration of Jehovah. Great changes are yet to take place in the earth itself, for it is part of "the purchased possession." All in their graves, according to Jesus, shall exheir preference for righteousness and incorrigible shall die again with

Flagrant disregard of the Lord's Day Act is one of the most pernicious influences working against Christianity, according to Rev. J. A. Agnew of Ridout Street Methodist Church, Mr. Agnew, in a sermon Sunday morning, declared the delegates at the Methodist conference in Sarnia were agreed that non-observance of the Sabbath was one of the most urgent problems with which the church was confronted.

"Pillars of society must guard against the inroads made into the Sabbath day," Mr. Agnew said. "Sunday picnics, excursions and concerts are all unnecessary, and every effort should be made to combat them.
