According to the custom of the club the officers will be chosen by the new executive, which includes Mrs. Hungerford and Miss Evelyn Harrison, representing which includes Mrs. Hungerford and Miss Evelyn Harrison, representing Toronto University; Miss K. Mc-Pherson, representing Queen's University; Miss Mary Granger and Miss Marion Wrighton, representing Western Ontario University, and Mrs. Edmond Meras, representing other Edmond Meras, representing other universities.

Reports of the year proved most

Reports of the year proved most interesting. Chief among the undertakings of the club during the year was the organization of a very successful book club. By means of it the members have been kept constantly supplied with the latest publications in book form. This given lications in book form. This circulating library has had as its able convener Mrs. L. P. Shanks. The club has also donated $25 towards the Toulouse scholarship fund, which is being raised with a view to sending a Western University graduate to France for post-graduate work.
