

A PETERBORO MIRACLE.

BROUGHT BACK FROM THE BRINK OF THE GRAVE.

A Young Girl's Wonderful Experience—Sickly From Four Months of Age—Her Parents Did Not Think She Would Live a Month—Now a Picture of Health—A Remarkable Case.

(From the Toronto Examiner.)

To be dragged to the edge of the grave in the grasp of the dread disease is an experience that comes to all but to contemplate entering the grave and mingling with its dust, to have, even in hope, bidden goodbye to life and all its sweetness, and then to be snatched from the brink of the grave and to be restored to health, strength and happiness, is an experience that few enjoy. We heard and read of such cases so well attested, that doubt finds small space for its exercise, but heretofore no case has, until now, come under our notice in Peterborough with such directness as to "make assurance doubly sure."

Many years have elapsed since the illness of Miss Amelia Ranger, who lives with her parents at 19 Portland-st. She was brought down to the very gates of death and was restored to perfect health when all human aid seemed to be exhausted. Her miraculous cure excited so much comment that a representative of the Examiner, desiring to obtain the particulars, and the result of the investigation is to verify the reports that have been current. On the 15th of August, Mr. Ranger's house the reporter was met at the door by a bright-eyed, healthy young girl, who readily consented to give the particulars of her illness and cure. She remarked that her mother was absent in Montreal on a visit, and added with no little pride that she was keeping the house and doing all the work, a thing that would have been impossible a year or so ago, as she was then so ill that constant attendance in the house had needed constant attention herself.

"I have been sickly from the time I was four months old," she said, "and as I grew up the weakness and illness became more pronounced. My blood was said to have turned watery. I was weak, pale and dull and could do nothing but suffer. Nothing the doctors did for me was of any use and I grew worse and worse. Father speaks of me as a good girl, but it was of no avail, and father and mother gave me up and felt that I was going to die. I expected the worst, and had no hope. I was as pale as a corpse and so weak I could hardly walk. My heart beat so fast I could hardly breathe. I had no sleep, and I lifted my hands my heart would jump until I thought I would die. About two years ago we heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and got a box, but as they did not seem to do much good I did not take any more at the time, but as I got worse and the doctor could do nothing for me, this time I made up my mind that I would give them a fair trial. I got eight boxes and before the third box was done I felt better and my appetite was better. I kept taking the pills until I had taken eight boxes, and all the time kept growing stronger and stronger. My mother was very much troubled, and I felt that I had never before. Now I can do all the work about the house, and I feel strong and well all the time. It is a great change since I was on the floor without falling. I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved me from going to the grave, and I am very thankful to look upon them."

There was no doubting the honesty of her conviction that the Pink Pills saved her life. A younger sister corroborated what was said, remarking: "When Amelia was so bad, green, and mother did not think she would live a month."

In evidence of the dangerous ill condition of Miss Ranger, several of her neighbors were seen. Mrs. Tremblay said the girl was very ill, and her friends did not expect her to recover, and she had been cured by the use of Pink Pills. Another lady present also bore testimony to the hopeless condition of Miss Ranger a few months ago.

The remarkable and gratifying results following the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the case of Miss Ranger show that they are unequalled as a blood builder and nerve tonic. In the case of young girls who are pale or sallow, listless, nervous, and suffering from palpitation of the heart, weak and easily tired, no time should be lost in taking a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which will speedily enrich the blood and bring a very glow of health.

These pills are a positive cure for all troubles arising from a vitiated condition of the blood, a shattered nervous system, such as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus dance, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of influenza, the tired feeling resulting from over-exhaustion, and all diseases depending upon impurities in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppression, irregularities and all forms of weakness. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excess of whatever nature.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Seward, N.Y., and are sold in boxes (never in loose form) by six dozen for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company from either address. The price at which these pills are sold makes a course of treatment inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

HERE'S A TALK OF MAN'S PERILS. A Girl Deprived in a Country Town and sent to Toronto Without Money. Last night a young woman applied at Police Headquarters for a night's lodging. Her story, if true, is a pitiful one, and shows what misadventure can do to a girl. She came from Brooklin, Ont., where she had been living for some time, and she had met a man that she loved not wisely, but too well. It is the old, old story of a trusting woman and an unscrupulous man. Finding that she was in an interesting condition, her confinement was no longer possible, and she found herself in a predicament with only a few cents in her pocket. She carried a cheap trunk shipped her to Toronto with a longish journey. She was given a night's lodging at the station and she will send back to Brooklin this morning.

HOWLAND MEMORIAL HALL.

A Proposal to Perpetuate the Memory of the Late Ex-Mayor.

Plans for a memorial hall in honor of the late W. H. Howland were laid at a meeting of the Board of Management of the Industrial Schools Association yesterday afternoon.

The hall will be in connection with the Mimico Industrial School, and the plans will be discussed at a meeting to be held on Jan. 5 next.

Dr. E. A. Meredith was in the chair, and there was a full attendance of the members of the board.

A resolution of condolence expressing the sorrow of the board over the loss of its chairman, Mr. Howland, was moved by Hon. Justice Proudfoot, who spoke of his long acquaintance with the dead man.

Dr. E. A. Meredith was in the chair, and there was a full attendance of the members of the board.

J. L. Hughes then introduced a resolution providing that the sub-committee of the board call a public meeting to arrange for the erection of a hall to be called the Howland Memorial Hall at the Victoria Industrial School.

The resolution was carried and the meeting will be held in the Bible house on Jan. 5, 1894.

We have received from Messrs. Suckling & Sons, the music publishers, a copy of their new book, "Students and Minstrel Songs and Choruses," for review. The contents are most varied, some of the numbers being for mixed as well as for male voices, and are in such cases arranged by the clever musician, Mr. Theodore Martens.

In the collection are some capital songs of a comic character, and there is a pretty setting of Gilbert's song and chorus, "The Old Red Cradle," also a genuine minstrel chorus called "The Golden Four Hundred," as well as some songs and choruses of a nautical character. Amongst the collection is Dr. Dudley Buck's beautiful arrangement of "Auld Lang Syne." We can recommend the work to our musical readers as one of much interest, and one that will likely be in great demand at all social and musical gatherings. The type and musical notation are of a superior quality and the edition generally being very well done, altogether a great credit to Canada and the publishers.

A Pastor Resigns. On Sunday last the Rev. W. Walker, pastor of the Don Mills Methodist Church, was seized with illness during the evening service. He was afterwards taken to his home, where he is now confined to his bed. He has been advised by his physician, Dr. Forfar, to resign his charge, which he will do and take a much-needed rest. Nervous prostration is the trouble.

The Ontario Ladies' College at Whitby has had a most successful session. Nearly one hundred boarders have been in regular attendance besides day pupils in music and art. The recent concert given at the Victoria University convocation in this city indicated the advanced work that is being done in music and elocution. The Rev. Dr. Hare, principal, will give any further information that may be desired.

A QUAKER'S WORD.

Why Many People Regard it as Good as His Bond—A Statement Made by One of the Friends Which Will Be Read With Interest by Thousands—Some Facts About Quakerism in Canada.

In numbers the Quakers are an inconsiderable factor in the community. But in individual influence as good Christians and good citizens, Quakers everywhere hold an exceptionally high place in the esteem of their fellow-men of whatever denomination. The Society of Friends in any city or town may comprise but a little band of members, sometimes scarcely enough to sustain a regular meeting-house and a pastor of their own. But think of their names and you will recognize them among the estimable people of your town.

It is not generally known that within a few years Quakerism will be able to record its first centennial of existence as a denominational body in this province. As a matter of fact, the first Society of Friends was established at West Lake, County of Prince Edward in 1830, by Timothy Rogers, grandfather of Elias Rogers, the well-known coal merchant of Toronto. And as a matter of interest it is worth noting that Toronto is the only large city in Canada which can claim a regularly maintained Society of Friends and a well-sustained church or meeting-house of Friends. The structure is an unpretentious, but very comfortable and substantially equipped place of worship on Pembroke-street, between Wilton and Shuter. The society in this city was organized as a body not more than 15 years ago by Mr. Elias Rogers, and his interest day while using this great remedy until fully restored to his present perfect good health. He says: "I have used twelve bottles of The Great South American Nervine Tonic and I consider that every bottle did for me one hundred dollars' worth of good, because I have not had a good night's sleep for twenty years on account of irritation, pain, horrible dreams and general nervous prostration, which has been caused by chronic indigestion and dyspepsia of the stomach and by a broken-down condition of my nervous system. But now I can lie down and sleep all night as sweetly as a baby, and I feel like a sound man. I do not think there has ever been a medicine introduced into this country which will do all as much with this Nervine Tonic as a cure for the stomach."

For systems where nerves are otherwise impaired and impoverished blood, falling health, mental dependency, female neuroticism and nervousness of old age, and for building up the system racked and enfeebled by an attack of the grip, no other remedy can compare with The Great South American Nervine Tonic in its instantaneous and wonderfully strengthening and invigorating effects.

It is from among such men that a statement will be accepted by people generally as something worthy of serious consideration. Those who are acquainted with Mr. Solomon Bond, a member of the Society of Friends, who is now residing at Darlington, in the State of Indiana, will remember the distressing affliction with which he suffered for years, until he was advised by his family to try the Great South American Nervine Tonic, and they are witnesses of

REV. ALEX. GILRAY, College Street Presbyterian Church, writes: Dear Sir, It is with much satisfaction that I learn that you have decided to establish a branch office in Toronto, believing as I do, that the greater will be the gratitude accorded to you for the relief afforded by many sufferers in Canada. We have used your Aid for Sore Throat, and we are now prepared to state that it is worthy of a place in every family. We have been cured of our sore throats and have recommended it to many—for which we will be glad to bear witness. We have also used your large Inhalant, in the old land and other countries. Much will depend on the patient and persevering use of the Aid as set forth in your little book. ALEX. GILRAY, 21 Bellevue Avenue, Toronto, 23th Nov., 1893.
