OTTAWA, Ont., May 18.—About 12.30 this morning Mr. Torcotte went into the office of the tariff changes given below. It will be noticed that these changes are almost all in the direction of a return to specific duties and are a considerable improvement on the resolutions as originally introduced respecting these items.

The Charge Against Mr. Torcotte.
When the House met Mr. Bruneau made his formal charge against Mr. Torcotte and moved that the matter be referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

Mr. Torcotte read a statement totally denying the charge, which he declared was a wholly untrue, and quoted a letter from his partner, Mr. Prevost, stating that the contract with the Government was made by him personally and that Mr. Torcotte had no interest whatever in it.

Mr. Torcotte then referred to the matter being referred to the committee, and submitted that the resolution should be amended by striking out the words, "and whether the said Joseph Torcotte has vacated his seat," leaving instructions to the committee to "report the result of their investigation to the House."

The amendment was carried, and the members voted by a vote of 103 for and 65 against. The division was a straight party one. Messrs. McCarthy and O'Brien voted with the Opposition.

Death of Hon. John Hearns.
Sir John Thompson referred to the death of Hon. John Hearns in Quebec this morning and paid a graceful tribute to his memory, in which he was joined in fitting terms by Hon. Mr. Laurier.

Mr. Torcotte apologized.
Before the House proceeded to the orders of the day Mr. Mulock arose to a question of privilege. He drew attention to the parliamentary report of the yesterday's Citizen, in which the French members were reported to have been guilty of "disrespectful" remarks to the speaker.

Mr. Mulock read, and as he repeated The Gazette correspondent's remarks that the insult to the French members was particularly bad grace from Mr. Mulock, who every session wastes more time in useless and senseless obstruction than any other member of the Opposition.

Mr. Mulock went on to say he did not think his remarks fairly open to the construction placed on them by the Citizen, and that he was sorry to hear of "disrespectful" remarks to the speaker.

DUPE OF A SMUGGLER KING.

FURTHER RATTLE OF MONTREAL ARRESTED IN HOSTS.

U.S. Sam Hobbs of $100,000—The Fur Dealer Began on $100,000, Borrowed, and Now His Store is One of the Sights of the Continent.

BOSTON, May 17.—J. A. Nelson Rattle, Montreal agent for J. B. LaBrie of Quebec, the largest fur dealer on the continent, was arrested yesterday in Dorchester, near Boston. United States customs authorities have been trying to catch these two men for years. It is believed they have cheated the United States Government out of $100,000 in customs duty.

Rattle is really LaBrie's dupe. Two other dupees procured by Rattle are now in prison at Albany. The evidence that convinced them will convict Rattle, but LaBrie, who profited by their work, is still beyond reach. Authorities here were informed of Rattle's departure to visit relatives at Dorchester by the Montreal customs authorities. They called him from the latter where he might be procured to receive a mail package and easily arrested him. He will be tried at Albany or Troy.

Now the scheme was worked. LaBrie's specialty is the American tourist trade. Americans found they could buy fur for 10 or 20 per cent. cheaper of him than of others and he agreed to deliver them. He represented that he would pay the duty.

LaBrie would have a lot of these sales packed, each sale in a separate package, addressed to the purchaser as his home in the States. The lot would then be made up of a total of 2000 to 3000 packages. This was to avoid the closer watch kept on the fur trade at Quebec.

Rattle stayed at the St. James Hotel in Montreal and cultivated the acquaintance of the fur trade. He was followed across the line and arrested at St. Lawrence.

The two dupes now in prison at Albany are LaBrie and his partner, a Canadian named McCormick and Henry Nedcor. They were followed across the line and arrested Sept. 15 last, with furs in their possession.

Started With $100.
QUEBEC, May 17.—J. B. LaBrie is in Europe. He sailed from Halifax in March by way of St. Peterburg. He returned next month by way of the St. Lawrence route.

Twenty years ago LaBrie, who was then a working furrier, borrowed $100 to go into business on his own account. Soon he was doing the bulk of the business in selling furs to Americans and he was worth $100,000. It is one of the show places of Quebec.

GEO. DECKER'S STRANGE CASE

NEITHER A DESPERATE CRIMINAL OR A MUCH-WRONGED MAN.

Six Murders at His Door—But His First Wife, Whom It Was Said He Killed, Has Turned Up Alive, and So Has the "Murdered" Babe—Whose Bones Were Dug Up.

COLUSA, Cal., May 17.—Another chapter was revealed here today in one of the strangest stories in the criminal annals of California. In Yreka, Siskiyou County, George Decker is in jail charged with murder, and so strong is public sentiment against him that it has been feared he would be lynched.

Decker, who originally hailed from Western Canada, had been a respectable rancher, and who is now married to a third wife, was arrested two weeks ago. It is charged that 24 years ago, in the wilds of Northern California, he murdered his first wife and little babe. Following his arrest the bones of a woman and babe were dug up on his ranch. This, with other evidence, seemed to substantiate the charges of murder.

Lynchings Were Threatened.
The charges against Decker seemed good proof that Decker had murdered his second wife by poison, in order to gain her land, and had also poisoned her son, her daughter, and his grandchild, all of whom died suddenly.

It was when public opinion had laid these six murders at his door that lynching was threatened. Secret preparations were actively begun.

Whose Crime Ever Committed?
Now there is good ground for the statement that the crime for which he is being denounced by the residents of his county is the most heinous of crimes. Decker is now a prisoner, that sensational crime of 27 years ago with its dramatic and long delayed trial, is now a mere comedy.

Margaret E. Decker, the woman who it is has been supposed and charged was decoyed murdered, is alive and well today. She is living near Willow as the wife of John Hamilton.

To make the story more complicated, it is to be stated that Nevada Decker, the babe supposed to have been foully done to death with its mother, is now a young man living and now grown to maturity, is a resident of Colusa County, being employed as present by a Mr. Williams.

Whose Bones Were They?
Granting that the identification of the sometimes Mrs. Decker and her child is complete enough to satisfy the public, it is to be stated that Nevada Decker, the babe supposed to have been foully done to death with its mother, is now a young man living and now grown to maturity, is a resident of Colusa County, being employed as present by a Mr. Williams.

Either the residents who testify to the sometimes Mrs. Decker and her child is complete enough to satisfy the public, it is to be stated that Nevada Decker, the babe supposed to have been foully done to death with its mother, is now a young man living and now grown to maturity, is a resident of Colusa County, being employed as present by a Mr. Williams.
