ST. ANDREWS STANDARD. PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY, BY A. W. SMITH AT SAINT ANDREWS NEW BRUNSWICK .

Bailable pre ulable write

Issue ; and

Juror's cum dants bond. 's complains

; Letter of ement Con-nance, and Timber, and

: 1 16 16

inc of the

me Court ut

New Brienes

upon the tis men ist w e her if s provided.

ul Jerne

(which sould and without the other

11 A19, 11 ANT

...........

uniass the nd disentige

ITEM MOUNTERS

ito Betate on

Jaures Gam

wides fast the 10.1.1018 0l

D 1-88.

Haerles

I fur when inser bions

a incounts

ANES GRA

riler. CRB

LAD.

LORR,

given im

MCGER.

iounie previ

t, ne all doos

e will be put pr Magistrate

t the Cours fuesday the ien the house

I. Claim and

PAR KER. tormerty be-Lieut. John

ed Mowatt's

igs pud. Im.

having beau

seven on of ince in favor

Wilson in a is her been.

Charleste.

andy, Martalle anda.

STREET,

PBELL.

EVA.

839.

LE.

cG. of longe

e requested

14

SRKER.

....) ic be

.....

HPAN

10

TERMS. 15s. a year, dolivered in town or. called for 17s. 6d. do. when forwarded by mail. A D V E R T I SE M E N T S, "-Tuserted according to written orders, o: conta mil forhad it no. written directions. First insertion of 12 lines, and under, 3s Rach repetition of Do, 1s First insertion of all over 12 lines 3d per line Each repetition over 12 lines 1d per line Advertising by the year as may be agreed o

Volume 7.

A Simile - A powerful oarsman termination, to apply the trinciwas seen urging his little boat oles of his illustrious predecessor. against a strong current, and as he the founder of the Thomsonian addressed himself to his work with system, to the body politic and all his muscular energy, he was corporate of Toronto ; in other advancing slowly but surely against words that he will administerthe opposing force. Casually at- sweats, purges, and cayenne peptracted by some neighboring ob- per to our officials in that city, ject, he missed a single stroke of until he reduces the political systhe oar ; the boat swung round, and tem of Upper Canada from its pre-, was swept , down the current, fell sent unhealthy state, to a more into the rapids, and was only by healthy one .- Kingston Whag. the intervention of friendly aid, that the final peril was escaped, and the bestman was dragged to an inquest held at Stockton on the shore, exhausted alarmed, dren- Monday, on the body of a man who ched, and bruised. So the Christian was killed in attempting to cross rows against the current of the with a waggen a portion of the railworld this progress depends on his way between Stockton and Darunceasing vigilance and labour; lington. The verdict was-"That any relazation or mismanagement the deceased was not accessory to of his cars, will jeopard his safety his own death ; that Matthew Apand it he does not retrive himself pleton (the engineer) is guilty of immediately, he may be wrecked Manslaugter : deodand upon the and ruined. The very supposi- engine Fourteen Hundred Pounds. tion that there is any period, this side of heaven, which does not require effort to overcome hostile for- poet's son is now senior ensign of ces, is in itself perilous. While the I wenty-second R .- Limerick the world the flesh, and the devil Chronicle. are in the field, no Christain can. The Queen has maid all the debts safely slumber 2on his arms .- of her late father the Duke of Kent [Presbyterian.]

An Extraordinary character .-- U. Henry Wheatly, expressing their. States paper mention the death of gratitude for this act of royal jusa Captain G. Y. Francis, recently tice and liberty. at New Orleans, whose life thad been eventful more than the lives James Bryan, the Scotchman who of most men:

recently figured before the Ken-"ite was in very early life at- sington hagistrates as a lover of tached to the wavy then to the stage the Queen, went to Windsor on - and travelled over the fore quar- Sunday last, to behold her Majcster of the globe -was for two years ty when walking on the terrace. a prisouer in the great Desert of His costume was a mixture of the Arabia-afterwards a slave to the Stuart, Graham, and Macgregor Bashaw of Tunis-then lieutenant plaids. He was closely watched by of a Gaerilla party in Spain, and a constable, but gave no trouble. to the Malaccas. He was subse- "bonnet," and bowed with a smilquently overseer of a sugar estate ing countenance. e remarked in Jamacia-then engaged in cut. to a bystander, that "Victoria was ing log wood in the forest of Cam- a bonny lassie, but that it was now

-was for three months a the fashiou amongst gentlefalk to

" 10:011:2

ORIGINAL he following lines are communicated to com-fort and console, the hereaved fluxband, pa-rents, and the whole, circle of relations and friends of the late much respects

SAINT ANDREWS, SATURDAY, JANUARY 4, 1840.

Standard

W-BRUNSWICK

NRS WATSON.

An Extraordinary Verdict .- 41

Say then, shall we mourn that her rest hath begun?

That this life she exchanged for an eternal O no! through our taith consolation is giv'n, ough she's lost to us here, we shall hel in Heaven.

E B. TO M183 J. W.

Fair, maid, on thee my thoughts do rest, At the setting of the sub, Thy heard's a forger in my breest Tho' by abother won:

How oft beneath the spreading tree, I mourn my fate undone, hy blooming charms are life to me Thy blooming charter won Tho' by anot er won

How often have I walked with thee. elore my wors begun. And kindly would you saile on me, I'no' by another won.

Since fate has ordered, that I through This world alone must run, What pleasure can I find since you Are by another won

St. George, Dec. 26, 1839.

ADDRESS OF A LADY,

HARD TO PLAASE, I do not like a mon the the la a men that a stiff a worse that al I moth about a man that's far, A men that's lean is worse than th A young than is a constant post, An old man would my room infe intest Ner do'l nke a' man that's fair, A man that's black I cannot bear. A man of sense L could not rule, And yet I should not love a look REPENTANCE. d furband, pr. positve and manifest transgressions, ken.

Number

I relations and others/are still more satisfied, if in in other arts, because, when the Some are satisfied if their con- art of raising food is neglected, all science does not accuse them with others must ultimately be forsa

- addition to this, they can boast of Honor and honesty in humble life She has gone from an org us, her tria's are an outward attention to public re- -At the great fair of Ballinasloe, e'er, The places which knew her, shall know her heightened in others, it in addition (Count Weiper) who attended to ligious duties; t is satisfaction is October, 1839, an Austrian Officer But in memiry, she lis & the tore's per- to all this, they are conscious of a purchase horses, set up at "Craig's Which enhalmethits ashes though wither'd daily observance of private prayer Hotel" and upon the morning of and reading the Scriptures ; and the day that he intended to make She has gone from among use no more shall sive ; it may consist with impeni- the " long room," where, several That voice which was once to our bosome tence. The true penitent and be- tables were laid, and many persons liever has something beside all in succession took their hurried so dear, No more will the glance of that eloquent ere, Gather light from a spint that never can die. Univ. Af-But her soui in the beauty of hoiness passid, Displaying its banner of hope to the last; No snadow of darkness, of doubt, or of fear; E'er shaded her brow, or extracted a tear. his heart, that he does not obtain rous waiters in that room, perceimore evident triumphs over his ved a pocket-book on the floor, corrupt nature; that he does not whit up, and found therein seve-keep his mind in a more spiritual ral bank notes. Immediately he meet frame ; and in a word, he repents immediately informed his employdaily of things, which a formalist er, and they (together) counted in religion would regard as very 40 notes, of the Bank of England innocent, or at least very excusa- of £100 each; then closed and laid by the pocket-book. Shortly ble -Prssby terian. lafterwards Count Weiper rushed

Sensitive Hair .- In the hospital In almost distracted. The young of the Royal Guards at Paris, was man after a few questions, to the a private soldier who had received Count's inexpressible joy restored violent kick on the back of his to him his lost treasure, and in prehead from a horse. The excite- sence of the "maitre d'hotel" (Mr. ment of the hair produced was ex- Craig) requested the count to extreme, and could only be kept un- amine the contents He did so. der by almost continued bleedings. both local and general. Amongst a series of phenonena produced by which the honest and honourable the state of preternatural excita- young fellow declined to accept .-tion, the sensibility acquired by "Excuse me Sir, I do not feel en-the hairs of the head was not re titled to a reward for doing my dumarkable: The slightest touch ty," was the reply. The grateful was felt instantly and cutting them count earnestly requested the gave exquisite pain, so that the pa- young man to accompany him, and tient would seldom allow any one he would get him a commission in. to come near his head. Baren Lar, the Austrain service ; but the rey to put him to the test, gave a young fellow remeabered his wish hint to an assistant, who was stand- dowed mother, who since his faing benind the patient, to chip off ther's death had, by honesty insome hair with out his perceiving dustry and great prudence, suppor it. This was done with great dex- ted and educated him and her oth-

		HIIS, WC. STRUCK ON I
	noticeto be	paid for on delivery	6
	1	AGENTS	4
	ST. ANDREWS,	Mrs. S. Connick.	West
	OT STRFBER.	Mr W. Campbell,	Salt Was
		J. M Allister Esq.	Million
	ST. DAVID.	Trist. Moore Esq.	Dennis M
*		Jas. Brown Esq.	Toter H
	- Prover	Mrs. Chalmers,	Oak Be
	ST. PATRICE	Mr. David Turner,	Bocal
	NT. GEORGE, -	Mr W. Brassi	Lower Fe
	PENNFIELD.		Knights Mill
	GEAND MANAS.	Wilford Fisher Esq	Wds. Con
	эт. Јонк,	D. M'Millan Esq.	1. 1. 2. 2. 2
	Ціснівисто, .	W. J. Layton Esq
	MIRAMICHI,	Jas, Cale Esq.
	BATHURST.	Joseph Reid, Enq.
-	FREDERICTON	Mr. F. Bevenley	- 1

Legal notices by individuals who have no

prisoner among a handitti in Mex- | wear such long petticoats, that he ico-then a captive among the had never yet been able to see her Camances- was ransomed by ive State and married, and was ex. [Ayrshire.]

ensively engaged in Lexan operaions when death arrested him still in the prime of life.

heard many enquiries made res- with the firstpecting the family of our worthy Governor General the Right Hon. you not guilty ? Poulett Thomson, as to whether it is, what is called in England, good;

i e. of noble blood or descent; that is to say, whether he can trace his descent from the pure unadulter- sentence, dat you be fined toriy ated aristocratic blood of William shillings. the Conqueror. Now, we happen to know from the best authority, swered guilty. that this is not the case, but that ! more honorable to him as a mem-

Best copy available.

Original issues in Poor Condition

Majesty's ankles he did not think some fur traders from the ()regon her handsome, but still he thought -was employed by the Governor ishe was a very good looking come--was employed by the Governor is ne was a very good looking come-if the Russian settlements to com- ly lassie." It is said that the silly "How seet the thoughts around then, twin't nand a brig in the wheat trade fellow's "siller" is nearly spent and Life then was hight, with Chili-finally revisited his na- that he will soon trudge back to

> In a certain villago in Pennsylvania, three men were brought be-

You rascal ! pe you kilty or pe

Mr. Landsowne Moore, the

and the creditors presented an address to her Majesty, through Sir

Prisoner-Guilty.

J .--- Vat you get trunk on ? P. Blackstrap.

J. Den dis pe mine everiastin

The second culprit likewise an-

J. Now tell me you trunken he lays claim to a descent much scamp what you get drunk on ? P. Gin sling ber of the great human family, J. Vat, you get trunk on sling, being the son of no less celebrated you graceless wagabone ! Den my . than the founder of the darnel sentence is, you pe fined stem of Medicine, twenty shillins.

The third and last prisoner was of re-1- now brought forward, and like the others pleaded guilty. J. Vat you get trunk on ? P. Punch.

Ah! you dippler you ! I on put notting at all, vor I lisputants are often-sober man I would not take A drumers man my heart would break. Ard yet I love the quarmage state.

BY-GONE HOURS.

shone with the gentle, good and kind happy hours dealm death! Not not yel tou d'uy head the comp-super del singer segure-as bright. As not taxas barn d'reaventy forigafore a Dutch Magistrate, accuse d A hope, that when these house have fied, A Dose of Paysic. - We have of drunkenness. His honor began That sweeter once may o'er us shed ard many enquiries made res- with the first-

ON PIME.

(Written on the conclusion of the year) BY THE LATE REV. J. MARSDEN. Rolling on, with march sublime, Lot I hear the wheels of time; I weive o clock, I heard the bell! 'I is the tast year's funeral knell!

Seasons change, and, as they page, Cry aroud, "All fiesh is grass!" Human pomp but blooms an hour; Map is an ephemeral dower!

Stately temples, shrines of goid, Perish like a story told! Fime; unfaithful to his trust, Writes their record in the dust

Minu:es roll, and pulses beat; Teach me, ascred Paraclete, While the flight of time I sing, Round the bleeding Crose to chag!

O how short man's wee or bliss; Life is a parenthesis Two eternities between; One to come, and one has been.

From the birth hour of this ball, To the hast end of all, Time is but a tew short pages In the tomb of endicss ages. 0

For should thousand ages run, Measur'a by yon flaming sun, Still they are as but a mite la duration infinite!

terity, but the soldier oroke out er childrenhe would not desert in a volley of oaths, succeded by her! Even that promotion, so complaints, and it was some time flattering to the son of a soldier, before he could be appeased .= could not tempt him to swerve from the path of duty. The high-French Paper. Dancing is Power .- ' country minded and truly honorable youth new sparer having given an account is the son of George Macdonald, of of a chartist meeting, at which Caithness, formerly colour scrplum-cake and dancing were the geant in the 42nd, whose manity niet entertainments, observes -- form and soldier-like bearing inwich congregations as these must duced the late Lady Cambermere convince both the dissembling to have his likeness taken at full Whigs, and the ultra church and length, as a perfect model of * a state Tories, that the working clas- brave Highland Soldier."

ses are alive to their own interests, Lord Hill has issued a "general" and that a political change is in-evitable.³⁸ Who could object to order" calling attention to one is a political change produced by sued on the 18th of January 1810, prohibiting officers from receiving dancing and plum-cake. Extent and Effect of Agricultu- any compliment by means of preral Improvements in Scotland - sents of place, sworths," &c. from Since the conclusion of the Ameri- soldiers serving under them. The can war, in 1782, improvement has occasion of this order was the pre-liorated almost in a proportional degree. These circumstances are ten up. The troops commenced community depend greatly upon Army of the south. the manner in which the art is ex-

proceeded with singular rapidity sentation of an address by the Serin every district ; and while the geants of the First Battalion of rental rolls of proprietors have Royal Fusileers, to Captain One been do bled, tripled quadrupled when that officer was promoted the condition of the tenantry, an 1 from an adjutancy to a company fit The camp at Borodino was brow sure tokens of agricultural prospe- their march to quarters ou the rity, and demonstrate in the most 15th A portion of them, amount tavorable terms, that husbandry is a main pillar of the state ; and that the happiness and welfare of the

The death of the Earl of Mount ecuted. No nation, whose husbandry is feeble and imperfect, can balg.combe makes a vacancy in be regarded as realing prosperous, the Lord-Lieutenancy of Cornhowever considerable may have wall; which, it is said, will be sup been the advances they have made plied by Mr. Pendarves. 1120000 of the lower ranks, has been ame-