Why pay his doctor bills? Can he avoid paying them because he agrees to pay inter-est? On the other hand if the law should be changed to exempt him from paying doctor bills must the mortgagee pay them? But we do not advocate any law to exempt the farmer from paying doctor bills or any other bill, but we do think he should not be taxed for someone else's property. But this has nothing to do with income tax, this is a question of land tax.

nothing to do with income tax, this is a question of land tax. The Register, however, asks another question which does have con-siderable relevancy, namely, "if a tax were laid on the mortgagee how long would it take him to shift it onto the holder of the land?" Again, the answer is simple and plain. If such a tax were imposed by law on income invested in farms he could never shift the tra wleas he more michigin then the low the the the the the low the the the the the the low the the the the the low the the the the the low the the the the low the the the the low the the low the the the the low the the the low the the the low the the the low the the the the low the the the low the the the low the low the the the low the low the the low the the low the low the low the low the the low th

The grand Masonic Fair opens at Annapoand if the tax were laid as well on all in-

of your money invested, just so long will mortgagors pay unjust taxes and the mortgagee get rid of paying on any more than six per cent of his property. The Register, however, goes on to state positively what the proper remedy is, viz., to take taxation off of labor or the result of labor and place it on opportunities. We do not dissent from this view neither can we venture to criticise it for we do not know what is meant.

The forwer do not know what is meant.

-CONSIDERABLE excitement has been aroused throughout the Empire by the report that Queen Victoria is about to abdicate her throne in favor of the Prince of Wales. This event would close the longest and happiest reign in British history. The millions of her subjects will view with grief any act which will terminate the reign of England's great est sovereign and truest woman.

see advertisement. -Mr. R. W. Elliott and two sons, with the assistance of one hired man, have finish-ed haying on the D. M. Elliott farm at Para-dise and also their farm at Spa Springs. Although the season has been most unfavor-able they have completed the task in four weeks, with the hay in perfect condition. We consider this excellent work. -Com. -The Dalhousie professorship of chemis-

-There will be a partial eclipse of the moon to-night, which will be visible here. Almost three quarters of the disc will be ob-scured, and from the time of entering the outer shadow, or penumbra, as it is called, to the time of leaving it, five and three quarters hours will intervene. The moon will be a little more than three hours in the deep shadow.

-The schooner James Farnham formar -The schooner James Farnham, formerly owned by Capt. John Snow, was wrecked near Meteghan Breakwater a few days ago during a heavy wind. She became a total loss, breaking up badly and has been sold for $17. She was owned by J. W. Raymond, of Port Maitland, and insured for $200. Until recently she was heaven. Until recently she ran between Meteghan and St. John. -The good folks of Dalhousie intend hav

FISHER--LEWIN. At the residence of Hon. James D. Lewin, -The good folks of Dalhousie intend hav-ing a tea-meeting on Wednesday, the 26th of this month, in aid of the funds for the erec-tion of a new church to replace the old one now fast falling into decay. All who have ever attended a tea-meeting in this beautiful locality and enjoyed the bounteous tea pro-vided by the ladies of that place, will no doubt be glad to go again.

HEAD BADLY CUT. -As the morning freight HEAD BADLY CUT.—As the morning freight was pulling into the station at Brickton on Tuesday, 4th inst., brakeman Walter Mo-Pherson jumped from the train to attend a switch, when he slipped and fell, receiving an ugly cut about the ear and eye. On ar-rival at Middleton he was taken to the drug store of Dr. Miller where the wounds were dressed, when he proceeded about his duties. Annapolis Masonic Fair. The grand Masonic Fair opens at Annapo-lis to-day, continuing till to-morow night. Every effort has been made by the different committees to make it one of the best ever held in our sister town and the outlook is most promising. All towns between Yar-mouth and Halifax will be well represented by members of the brotherhood and their friends, and in addition to these many resi-dents of New Brunswick have expressed their intention of being present. The im-posing ceremony of the laying of the corner-stone of the new Masonic Temple will take place to morrow at one hour past high 12 o'clock by the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia. Novel and entertaining sports are to take place on the grounds, where refreshments in abundance can also be obtained. Take a day off and visit the Masonic Fair at Anna-polis. — A good string of horses have been entered for the races on the Kentville track on Friday next. Cushing's Pilot, Tommy M., Gypsey Pilot, Bonny F., Andrew and Michael are entered in the 2.35 class, while the 2.50 class has some seven entries. It is expected that there are five entries. It is expected that the fast stallion, Warren Guy, owned by Dygert Bros., of Buffalo, will show a trial mile.

mile. —The Lawn Festival, given at Inglewood on Wednesday last, under the auspices of the Inglewood Church, was a grand success both socially and financially. The tables were well spread and contained a bounteous supply of choice edibles, fruits, and other tempting viands. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Edward Jackson of Halifax, brother Philip Hamilton, and the resident minister, Rev. A. Clements. The proceeds, amounting to §35.00, were presented to Rev. A. Clements as a token of the esteem in which he is held by the residents of the community and to partially compensate him for his appreciated labors since his advent among them some few weeks ago. The barquentine Argentina, Capt. Mo-Quarry, arrived at Gesner's Creek, in tow of tug Clipper, on Monday last, where she is to load a cargo of 645,000 feet of dimension timber for the above port for Wm. M. For-syth, Esq. The Argentina is probably the largest vessel ever brought so near the head of navigation in the Annapolis river, as she is nearly 700 tons register.
