

	Page.
Arrival at Chaco. Manners of the Inhabitants,	381
CHAP. VIII. Adventure with the Niece of an old Priest at Castro. Superstition of the People. The Lima Ship arrives, in which we depart for Valparaiso, January 1743. Arrival at and Treatment there. Journey to Chili. Arrival at St Jago. Generous Conduct of a Scotch Physician. Description of the City and of the People.	392
IX. Account of the Bull Feasts and other Amusements. Occurrences during nearly two Years Residence. In December, 1744, we embark for Europe in the Lys French Frigate. The Vessel leaky. Dangerous Voyage. Narrow Escape from English Cruizers. Arrival in England. Conclusion,	404
APPENDIX, No. II. BULKELEY'S NARRATIVE,	423