

NOTES ON THE HIGH SCHOOL READER.
By R. Dawson, B.A., T.C.D., Head
Master of Weston High School. pp. 124.
30 cents. Toronto: Rose Publishing Co.

The lessons prescribed for the third-class examination of 1887 are here annotated, biographical sketches of the authors and other information being also given. The timely appearance of this little book will be welcomed by many teachers.

AN ALGONQUIN MAIDEN. By G. Mercer Adam and A. Ethelwyn Wetherald. Toronto: Williamson & Co. Montreal: John Lovell & Sons.

We hope many of our readers have already seen "An Algonquin Maiden" for themselves. At all events, many will have seen reviews of it, more extended than our limited space allows us to present. It gives us pleasure to welcome another Canadian work by Mr. Adam, who has already done much, in a literary way, for Canada, and to express our hope that other works, yet more worthy of himself, may come from his pen in future years.

THE STORY OF THE SARACENS. By Arthur Gilman. New York and London: G. P. Putnam's Sons. pp. 493. $1.50.

The "Story of the Nations" is an interesting and important series, and he who has it in his library is well-furnished for historical study. From the dim times of the far past to the Fall of Bagdad, from the Queen of Sheba to Jengis Khan, there is here a fascinating narrative to read and much to learn from it.

BUSINESS.

If you know your subscription to have expired, renew it at once. $1 per annum is the subscription price, and there is not a teacher in Canada who cannot afford to pay that sum for a good educational paper.

Notify THE MONTHLY at once of change of post office, always giving the name of old office as well as the new.

THE MONTHLY will not be discontinued to responsible subscribers until ordered to be stopped. Bills will be rendered from time to time, and prompt payment of the same will be expected.

Subscribers wishing to introduce THE MONTHLY to their friends can have specimen copies sent free from this office to any address.

Our readers will observe that special attention is given to examination papers in this Magazine; in many cases hints and answers are given, and for several papers solutions have been furnished to all the questions. We hope subscribers and others will show in a practical way their intelligent appreciation of the valuable work done by the editors of the different departments of THE MONTHLY.

WE are grateful to the kind friends of THE MONTHLY who have, from many different places, sent us letters of approval and appreciation. If golden words were current coin, our esteemed treasurer would be able to declare a handsome dividend, and while we are much encouraged by the frequent assurances that THE MONTHLY is fulfilling a noble mission, we would respectfully ask our good friends to forward their subscriptions, as, though one dollar is a small amount, yet when a large number are delinquent in this small sum at one time, the effect is somewhat hurtful to the position of an educational journal, depending chiefly, as THE MONTHLY does, upon the support of the profession.

The best educational journal is the teacher's best friend, and we ask you, gentle reader, to aid in securing new subscribers for this educational journal, and to help the editors in getting original contributions for its columns, thus making it more and more the best.

Bound copies of this Magazine in cloth may be had from Williamson & Co., or from James Bain & Son, King Street, Toronto, for $1.50 per copy.
