

DAY OF JUDGMENT.—Miller, the great Millenium preacher, says,—“I understand the judgment day will be a thousand years long. The righteous raised and judged in the commencement of the day, and the wicked in the end of the day. I believe that the saints will be raised and judged about the year 1843;—according to Moses's prophecy, LEV. 26; EZEK. 36; DANIEL 2, 7, 8 to 12 chapters; HOSEA 5, 1—3; REVELATION the whole book; many other prophets have spoken of these things. Time will soon tell if I am right, and so he that is righteous will be righteous still, and he that is filthy will be filthy still. I do solemnly entreat mankind to make their peace with God; be ready for these things, ‘The end of all things is at hand.’ I do ask my brethren in the gospel ministry, to consider well what they say before they oppose these things. Say not in your hearts ‘my Lord delayeth His coming.’—Let all do as they would wish they had, if it does come, and none will not say they have not done right, if it does not come.—I believe it will come; but if it should not come, then I will wait and look until it does come. Yet I must pray, Come, Lord Jesus, come quickly.”

NEW MAGISTRATES.—The Lord Chancellor has appointed Sir Henry Bruce, Bart., a magistrate for the county of Londonderry; and J. Thompson, Esq., a magistrate for the county Cavan.

INFORMATION WANTED,

OF ROBERT GOURLAY, a native of St. Andrews, Scotland, who left that country about ten years ago, and is now supposed to be in some part of the United States. Should this meet his eye, he will hear of something to his advantage by writing to his brother, at home—who is most anxious to hear from him. His father and mother have both died since he left his native land. When last heard from he was teaching school in Dalton County, Ohio. Any information respecting him, addressed to JOHN CREIGHTON, Chronicle & Gazette Office, Kingston, will be thankfully received.

TO THE READERS OF THE CATHOLIC.

WE take this opportunity to express our grateful thanks to our Rev. and dear brethren for their zealous endeavours to promote the circulation of our paper among their people. Some, to be sure, have not been so successful as others; but all, we doubt not have done what they could, to keep our Catholic afloat, the first, the only English periodical ever edited in the Canadas in defence of our holy religion; nay, the only one ever edited in this country in any language for so necessary a purpose, except that excellent paper in French, the “Melanges Religieux,” lately published in Montreal. Our outlay however is great, not less in the year than some thousand dollars. Any thing above the sum required will be at our own disposal; and will be exclusively applied towards liquidating the debt contracted in finishing our Church here; in the purchase of two lots; and the erection of our Presbytery upon them; so as to leave our people here, in this important place, in the full and free enjoyment for ever of the conveniences of their religion. We should hope therefore that no true Catholic will begrudge lending what support he can towards so meritorious a purpose. Should it happen otherwise, and that we are left in the lurch, as we have been on a former occasion; what an everlasting reproach it would be to our people in all the Canadas, that they would not support one single weekly periodical, engaged in refuting the calumnies and misrepresentations of the religious Protestant press; and of shewing the purity of our doctrines to the prejudiced and mis-directed multitude. If so, we need not wonder and complain that we are looked upon as monsters by those who for more than three centuries have been taught to consider us as such; or that, as the Apostles says, “the way of truth should be evil spoken of:” 2 PET. ii. 2.

QUEEN'S HEAD HOTEL.
JAMES STREET, (NEAR BURLEY'S HOTEL.)

THE Subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public generally, that he has fitted up the above named house in such a style as to render his guests as comfortable as at any other Hotel in Hamilton. His former experience in the wine and spirit trade enables him to select the best articles for his Bar that the Market affords; and it is admitted by all who have patronized his establishment, that his stabling and sheds are superior to any thing of the kind attached to a public Inn, in the District of Gore.

N. B.—The best of Hay and Oats, with civil and attentive Ostlers.
W. J. GILBERT.
Hamilton, Sept. 15, 1841.

THE HAMILTON RETREAT.

THE Subscriber has opened his Retreat in Hughson street a few doors north of King street, and wishes to acquaint his friends that they may rely on every Luxury the markets afford; his Wines and Liquors will be selected with care, and no expense spared in making his guests comfortable.

Oysters, Clams, &c., will be found in their season. He therefore hopes by strict attention and a desire to please, to merit a share of Public patronage.

ROBERT FOSTER.
