CURRENT TRADE CONDITIONS.

ONTARIO.

The improvement in the lumber trade has been quite marked during the past week, for which the fine weather is largely responsible. The local demand for material for building purposes has quickened, but the railroads are bringing in the lumber very slowly. There is very little dry stock at the mills, while the lower grades are particularly scarce and command high prices. Several transactions have taken place in mill culls at $1.50 f.o.b. cars at the mill, which is about $1 higher than a year ago. What is known as scotts are selling at $7.50. The higher grades, however, do not show corresponding strength, as has been the
