"THOU GOD SEEST ME."

"When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then Thou knowest my faith."—PSALM cxlii. 3.

My God, whose gracious pity I may claim, Jailing Thee "Y-ies" sweet, appearing aame! The sufferings of this weak and weary frame, All, all is known to Thee.

From human ore 'tis better to be cast Much that I suffer, much I hourly feel; But, oh! this thought does tranquillize and heal, All, all is known to Thee.

Each secret conflict with indwelling sin, Each sick'n'g fear 'I ne'er the prize shall win." Each pang from irritation, turmoil, sin, All, all are known to Thee.

When in the morning unrefreshed I wake, Or in the night but little rest can take, This brief appeal submissively I make, All, all is known to Thee.

Nay, all by Thee is order'd, chosen, plann'd, Each drop that fills my daily cup, Thy hand Prescribes for His none else can understand, All, all is known to Thee.

The effectual means to cure what I deplore, In me Thy longest-for sickness to restore, Self to de throne, never to govern more, All, all are known to Thee.

And this continued feebleness—this state, Which seems to unnerve and incapacitate, Will work the cure my hopes and prayers await, That sure I leave to Thee.

Nor will the bitter thought distasteful prove, While I recall the Son of Thy dear love; The cup Thou wouldst not for our sakes remove, That cup He drank for me.

He drank it to the dregs—no drop remained Of wrath—for those whose cup of wo he drained; Man ne'er can know what that sad cup contained— All, all is known to Thee.

And welcome, precious, can His spirit make, By little drop of suffering for His sake; Father! the cup I drink, the path I take, All, all are known to Thee.
