ITEMS.

JOHN PINE, Cleaner, G. T. R., city, had his leg severely injured. He is slowly recovering.

P. McDONALD, Brakeman, N. & N. W. R., city, had his back severely injured. He is recovering.

GEO. MACKEY, smith's helper, G.T.R., city, sprained both of his hands. We are glad to say he has almost recovered.

FRED DENNE, Fireman, C. T. R., and his wife, have taken a trip to the old country. We wish them a pleasant visit, and a safe journey.

We are sorry to state that the seven-year-old son of Conductor Alex. Gilchrist, G. T. R., was kicked by a horse and severely injured. The little fellow is, however, recovering.

J. SINCLAIR, Brakeman, G. T. R., York, while coming out of Belleville yard, his head came in contact with an overhead bridge, but we are glad to say that he has fully recovered from his injury.

MARTIN O'GRADY, Conductor, G.T.R., York, has been compelled to go to the General Hospital, on account of his ankle not doing as well as we reported in our last SPECIAL. We hope he may soon be able to resume work.

MR. P. NEWTON, Loco. Foreman, G. T. R., city, who was with the Body Guards on active service in the North West, has returned to duty. We give him a hearty welcome back to our midst; and we also welcome back the other employees of the G. T. R. and N. & N. W. R., who distinguished themselves in the late rebellion.
