

'burglar courteously. "I am merely after the contents. When I take houses, I do it through the regular real estate channels."

There can be a difference of opinion on most subjects, but there is only one opinion as to the reliability of Mother Graves Worm Exterminator. It is safe, sure, and effectual.

Brown: "But why do you stop so often? Can't you keep up with me?" Typewriter (who is rather shaky in her orthography): "Oh, yes, but your language is so eloquent that I frequently find myself spellbound."

Are you suffering with corns? If you are, get a bottle of Holloway's Corn Cure. It has never been known to fail.

A smart student once asked Dr. Morgan, of Oberlin, if he could not shorten his course of study into the ministry. His answer was: "When God wishes to make an oak, He takes many years to complete His work; if he would make a squash, a few weeks would suffice."

Try it.—It would be a gross injustice to confound that standard healing agent, Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, with the ordinary unguents, lotions and salves. They are oftentimes inflammatory and astringent. This Oil is, on the contrary, eminently cooling and soothing when applied externally to relieve pain, and powerfully remedial when swallowed.

Mrs. K. had engaged a robust, middle-aged colored woman to do some house cleaning. During the progress of the work Mrs. K. said: "A colored man came along here one day last week, and wanted work, and I let him wash some windows, but he did not do the work at all well." "What fo' lookin' man was he?" asked the helper. "Well, he was a big strong fellow, and he had but one eye. He said that his name was White. He did very poor work." "I specs he did, lady. He's de wus no-count in dis town." "Oh, then you know him?" "Know him? Why, lady, I's mah'ied to 'im."

Signals of Danger.—Have you lost your appetite? Have you a coated tongue? Have you an unpleasant taste in the mouth? Does your head ache, and have you dizziness? If so, your stomach is out of order, and you need medicine. But you do not like medicine. He that prefers sickness to medicine must suffer, but under the circumstances, the wise man would procure a box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, and speedily get himself in health, and strive to keep so.
