

Three Essentials of a Life Insurance Company.

- 1st. Undoubted Financial Standing.
- 2nd. Favorable Earning Powers.
- 3rd. Liberal and Up-to-date Policies.

In all three respects the LONDON LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, Head Office, London, Canada, will compare favorably with any of its competitors. Over 93½% of the total gross assets of the Company are invested in First Mortgages on good class Real Estate, Stocks, Bonds and Debentures, Loans on Policies and Cash in Banks, yielding an average return of over 5½% per annum. The Company's Policies are also models of liberality, and calculated to meet the varied requirements of intending insureds.

Any agent of the Company will afford full information as to rates, etc.

THE SUNDAY AT HOME

THIS superior religious monthly is published by The Religious Tract Society, London, England. It is entirely non-denominational in character. Its contents are well selected, splendidly written and beautifully illustrated, and they cover a wide range of subjects of general as well as of religious interest. The issue for June includes the following among other articles:

The Coronation of the King, by Ian Maclaren.
A Holiday in Belgium. Illustrated.
The Oldest Anglo-Jewish Congregation. Illustrated.
Three Weeks in British Guiana. Illustrated.

And chapters from two fine serial stories—

Under Calvin's Spell, by D. Alcock.
David and Jonathan, by Julia Hack.

The subscription price in England is 6d. per copy, and 8s. per year, but for the Canadian market we have secured a special rate of 10c. per copy and $1.20 per year. Sample copies sent on receipt of price.
