

IMPOSING DEMONSTRATION.

GRAND MASS MEETING—ADDRESSES BY ALEXANDER SULLIVAN AND SENATOR RIDDLEBERGER.

CHICAGO, August 15.—This evening an imposing demonstration took place at Ogden's Grove, which was attended by several thousands of the friends of the Irish cause.

MR. SULLIVAN'S SPEECH.—On taking the chair Mr. Sullivan made a speech in which he said that at the time the Land League was organized by the people of Ireland...

RELIEF OF THE IRISH PEOPLE.—In the political organization effected under the cloud of threatened famine certain principles were adopted which the people of Ireland will never surrender.

SENATOR RIDDLEBERGER'S ADDRESS.—In the course of his remarks the Senator said:—"If I was to inquire of myself why I am here to-night, why I am the recipient of such an honor and such a compliment as an invitation to be here, I would find the answer in the single vote that I recorded against what was called the Bayard resolution."

THE RIGHT TO REBEL.—"Go through all the reasons why the thirteen colonies rebelled, and if you can find one that does not apply equally in the case of Ireland I will tell you where Americans find a dozen more instead of it."

BOOTH'S SCHEME FOR THE RESCUE AND PROTECTION OF YOUNG GIRLS.—LONDON, August 15.—Gen. Booth writes to the papers that he has a project for the formation of an "office of help and inquiry" with headquarters in London and agencies in the world.

HEARTY RECEPTION TO LORD CARNAVON.—DUBLIN, August 17.—Lord and Lady Carnavon started to-day on a tour through Ireland. The first stop was at Galway, where a large crowd had assembled to meet the new viceroy.

A CUTTING REPLY TO AUSTRIA.—WASHINGTON, August 16.—The State department has permitted the correspondence between this country and Austria relative to Minister Kelly to be made public.

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH.

WHAT SHE HAS TO SAY OF THE NILE EXPEDITION AND THE ACTION OF HER TROOPS.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—Parliament was prorogued to-day. The following is the Queen's speech:—"My Lords and Gentlemen—I am too glad to be able to relieve you from the labors of a session which has been protracted and eventful."

I received with great pleasure loyal offers of military assistance for this campaign from my colonies, from native princes of India, and a contingent from the colony of New South Wales served with distinction in the east of the Red Sea.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons.—I thank you for the liberality wherewith during the past year you have provided for the services of the country.

My Lords and Gentlemen.—I have had the pleasure of giving my assent to a measure enabling federal action in certain matters to be taken by my colonies in Australasia, to a much needed amendment to the criminal law, and to a bill establishing a new department in the government for the management of Scottish affairs.

During the past session your time has been principally occupied by the enlargement of the electorate and the extensive changes which you have in consequence made in the constitution of the House of Commons.

LONDON, August 15.—The reading of the Queen's speech in the House of Lords yesterday was a very dull affair. The address was seemingly contemptuously received.

THE LONDON ABDUCTION.

FURTHER INTERVIEWS WITH FRANCIS AND FRANCIS—DETERMINATION TO RUIN THE WEALTHY LIBERTINE—PEARCE'S VERSION OF THE STORY.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—The flogging of Mr. Pearce by Mr. Francis for the alleged betrayal by the former of the latter's daughter is the political as well as the social sensation of the day.

MR. FRANCIS INTERVIEWED.—Mr. and Mrs. Francis and Mr. Pearce were all seen to-day by your correspondent, and all talked with considerable freedom about the scandal.

DRIFT OF DOMESTIC TRADE.

Weekly Review of Wholesale Markets.

Business during the past week has been marked by no important features, but there is some tendency towards improvement.

DAIRY PRODUCE AND PROVISIONS.—The butter market has developed no new features during the past week. A few sales of choice creamery for export have been made at 19s.

GREEN FRUITS.—A fair business has been done. Apples have declined and are weak at $2 to $3 per box.

GROCERIES.—The volume of business is increasing, but we have no change to make in prices.

HIDES.—Clips and lambkins are higher, but otherwise there is no change, and the remarks of last week will apply to hides.

IRON AND HARDWARE.—The demand for pig iron is confined to small parcels and there is a total absence of speculation, both here and in the States.

LEATHER, BOOTS AND SHOES.—A steady improvement is noticeable. Work at the factories is going on briskly and a greater harvest of orders is expected later in the season.

TORONTO WHOLESALE MARKETS.

Business on the whole is fair for this season of the year, although in some departments quietness prevails.

BUTTER.—The demand for choice new dairy is very good, in fact there is not enough offering to supply it.

GROCERIES.—Trade continues very fair. A good many teas have been moving at steady prices.

FRUITS.—Loose muscatels, $2.25 to $2.40; new sultanas 6c to 6 1/2c.

FLOUR AND GRAIN.—The demand for flour has been good; prices are firm.

HIDES, ETC.—Demand fairly good. Prices firm. Green steady and wanted.

PROVISIONS, ETC.—Trade has improved somewhat. Bacon is in better demand at steady prices.

THE IRISH WOLF HOUND.

A number of influential English and Irish sportsmen have recently organized the Irish Wolfhound Club of Great Britain.

LONDON, August 15.—The reading of the Queen's speech in the House of Lords yesterday was a very dull affair.

1. General Appearance.—The Irish Wolfhound should not be quite so heavy or massive as the Great Dane, but more so than the deerhound.

2. Head.—Long, the frontal bones of the forehead very slightly raised, and very little indentation between the eyes.

3. Neck.—Rather long, very strong and muscular, well arched, without dewlap or loose skin about the throat.

4. Chest.—Very deep, breast wide.

5. Back.—Rather long than short. Lions arched.

6. Tail.—Long and slightly curved, of moderate thickness, and well-covered with hair.

7. Belly.—Well drawn up.

8. Forequarters.—Shoulders muscular, giving breadth of chest, set sloping. Elbows well under, neither turned inward nor outward.

9. Hindquarters.—Muscular thighs, and second thigh long and strong, as in the greyhound, and hocks well let down and turning neither in nor out.

10. Feet.—Moderately large and round, neither turned inward nor outward. Toes well arched and closed. Nails very strong and curved.

11. Hair.—Rough and hard on body, legs, and head; especially wiry and long over eyes and under jaw.

12. Color and Markings.—The recognized colors are gray, brindle, red, black, pure white, fawn, or any color that appears in the deerhound.

THE ONTARIO CROPS.

SATISFACTORY REPORTS OF THEIR CONDITION AND PROSPECTS.

TORONTO, August 15.—The report of the Bureau of Industries on the wheat, oats and barley crops of Ontario, based on returns made by 1,000 correspondents on the 5th inst., has just been issued.

POPULAR SCIENCE.

HOME CULTURE.

There is a great fancy for pretty ornamental quilts at present. The old white counterpanes, with raised patterned surface, that recall the days of one's youth, are no more considered à la mode, but are superseded by flowered cretonne, edged with a flounce of tinted lace; red Turkey twill, plain, or embroidered with white flourishing thread; gay printed cotton of any nondescript design, the more quaint the better.

In old days in Germany the housewife prided herself on her embroidered quilts or coverlets, and many of the specimens have been taken to England by collectors of work and copied accurately in coloring and design.

The large cotton fancy handkerchiefs or mufflers used by workmen can be adapted by being sewn on to common sheeting. Three are required, the most effective being laid on the centre of the quilt, the second being so that the four corners form points as the quilt, and the third divided into four square pieces and sewn on at one side.

A large herring bone stitch is worked all round the pieces in red knitting cotton, and any extra fancy sewing that taste dictates. The whole will wash perfectly. A good deal of taste and ingenuity can be brought to bear on this subject.

Another style of work is the ornamenting, in colored silks or crevels, of an ordinary kitchen table cloth. The tracery on these cloths is sometimes bold and often artistic, so that there is no trouble of designing or adapting. They are, when worked, used also as drawing room tea cloths, when a large one is required. Colored ribbon or washing braids are occasionally added. In shades of China blue the effect is particularly good, and the work is pleasant, easy and interesting.

Some quilts are darned all over, the design being in shades of color, and the ground of one tint, old gold or dark brick red being popular. The foundation is linen, and the darning is close and all one way—not crossed.

IN MEMORIAM, MISS J. MORAN.

And thou art gone from our midst away, Poor, faithful one, thy tears and sighs; Thou'rt left for the land of endless day, Where God's pure love is the living light.

And all in vain would we strive to see The joys divine of that glorious sphere; The radiant gifts that show'd us there, Of which, alas! we can dream not here.

Ah, yes! rejoice that the end hath come, The weary days of thine exile o'er; The goal is reached, thou'rt safe at home, With the dearly loved, who had gone before.

Long, long ago, in the golden time, Ere life's rough path so far I'd trod, I knew that faithful heart of thine, And its every aim, was all for God.

Then, oh, how great must its need have been, What boon for thee, had Mary won, In the after years when thou wert then The chosen bride of her Holy Son.

Blest Marg'ret Bourgeois, thy Mother dear, What grace she asked of the Spotless Lamb, As drew the time of thy crowning year, Her favored daughter of Notre Dame.

Now thy cherished relics calmly rest, From sounds of earthly turmoil free; In her own fair shrine of the Rosary blest, Where fervent souls will remember thee.

Ah! safe with Jesus, far from care, With Him whose change is never worth; Ah! deign to hear the sigh and prayer, Of those most loved by thee on earth.

And these poor words which faint would tell, Our thought of thee enthroned above; As from a heart thou knowest well, Bound to thee by a sister's love.

And from that chain no link shall fall, But closer, as the years pass o'er, 'Twill bind us still, unchanged in all, Until we meet on Heaven's shore.
