The Origin of Familiar Phrases.—The term 'masterly inactivity' originated with Sir James Mackintosh. 'God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb,' which everybody who did not suppose it was in the Bible, credited to Sterne, was stolen by him from George Herbert, who translated it from the French of Henry Estienne. 'The cup that cheers but not incbriates,' was conveyed by Cowner from Bishop Berkely, in his cheers but not incbrintes, was conveyed by Cowner from Bishop Berkely, in his 'Siris.' Wordsworth's 'The child is father to the man,' is traced from him to Milton, to Sir Thomas More. 'Like angel's visits—few and far between,' is the offspring of Hook; it is not Thomas Campbell's original thought. Old John Norris—1650—originated it and offer him Below Illain as lets ar thought. Out John Norris—1650—orginated it, and after him, Robert Blair as late as 17-15. 'There's a gude time coming' is Scott's phrase in Rob Roy; and the 'al mighty dollar' is Washington Irving's happy thought.

ARMS TO CANADA.—The following return was issued on April 25, showing the number of arma, &c., sent to British North America (including Canada, Halifax, and New Brunswick), from December 1861, and ordered in consequence of the affair of the Trent:—Rifles pattern 1863, 44,829; smoothbore arms, 2,500; accourtements, 45,500; ammuition, 2,276,500; gaeat coats, 40,000; blankets, 25,040. ets, 25,040.
