

5. Female cattle under 18 months of age that are born in herds in which cattle were tested as described in paragraphs (c)(1), (2), and (3)(i) of this section are exempted from the test requirements for brucellosis, provided, however, they are accompanied by a certificate issued or endorsed by a salaried veterinarian of the Canadian Government showing that they were officially vaccinated against brucellosis as calves between the ages of 2-6 months (60-179 days old) for dairy breeds and from 2-10 months of age (60-299 days old) for beef breeds. The certificate accompanying such officially vaccinated cattle shall comply with paragraph (d) of this section except that it shall show, in lieu of the date and place of testing, the date of vaccination and the age of the animal at the time of vaccination.
  6. All cattle to be imported from Canada which originate from a brucellosis-free herd or a brucellosis-qualified for export herd shall move directly to the port of entry without contact with cattle which are not from a brucellosis-free herd or a brucellosis-qualified for export herd.
- d. Certificates; information required. The certificates prescribed in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section shall give the dates and places of testing, names of the consignor and consignee, and descriptions of the cattle, including breed, ages, markings, and tattoo and ear tag numbers.

92.22 Swine from Canada.

- a. For purposes other than immediate slaughter. Swine offered for importation from Canada for purposes other than immediate slaughter shall be accompanied by a certificate issued or endorsed by a salaried veterinarian of the Canadian Government showing that said swine have been inspected on the premises of origin immediately before the date of movement therefrom and found to be free of evidence of communicable disease and that, as far as it has been possible to determine, they were not exposed to any such disease during the preceding 60 days; in addition, the certificate shall show that no hog cholera or swine plague has existed on the premises of origin or on adjoining premises for such 60 days.
