BRIEF 11 cont.

The Brazilian Amazonian forest, the Atlantic forest, the Serra do Mar, the Mato Grosso Pantanal and the coastal zones are national patrimony. The use and development of their natural resources shall only be undertaken within conditions, determined by law, that assure the preservation of their environment.