

7.6

Community development: Describe the company's support in the form of expertise, sharing of experience and financial contributions to community programmes designed to improve the quality of life of black workers and their families, e.g., housing, education (including access to integrated facilities), health care, child welfare, legal aid, sanitation, water supply and any other useful social services.

NR