

works requested by the receiving institutions will be communicated to the appropriate lending authorities in each country through their respective embassies;

4. The Canadian side informed the Soviet side of the desire of the Quebec Government to promote contacts and exchanges of information, publications and artifacts between the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts and the Musée du Québec on the one side and the Hermitage Museum and the Pushkin Museum on the other. The material and financial conditions of such exchanges will be agreed upon on a case by case basis between the appropriate Soviet and Québec authorities;

5. The Canadian side also informed the Soviet side of the Quebec Government's interest to facilitate the exchange of photographic and other exhibitions on a reciprocal basis;

C. Literature

Both sides agreed:

1. To facilitate the exchange of books, textbooks and other training material, periodicals and information materials between libraries, archives and other