

Canada <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - rights framework adopted - influence and recognition of disability movement - new and kind of resources - inclusion in society - new policy and funding -DPPP - 1st time government funding advocacy organization as program - disabled people are in leadership positions - policies on accessibility and employment - accessible transport 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - struggle to implement H.R. framework - government priorities on funding ebb and flow - drop after Decade 1992 - institutional memory lost - need for ongoing advocacy and monitoring (government - NGO disability organization) - political priority major problem - struggle for appropriate (mechanism for policy consultation) - ongoing struggle of disability movement to be effective 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - technology (liberation or oppression) - business opportunities - issues of greater complexity emergence of eugenics movement in new form (Latimer case) - Aids and other disease are causes pf disability - bio technology - more complex ethical issues as a result of medical treatment - longevity - new viruses - new medication and side effects - longer life but limited community support systems
International <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - regional decades - Asia Pacific and Africa - disability included - number of countries in adopted comprehensive disability (rights) legislation (50) - within UN Human Rights framework adopted for disabled people - disabled people were able to make gains even beyond women=s movement (becoming part of UN Inter Agency meetings) - Canadian Government played a major role in promoting disability issues during the Decade 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - number of disabled increasing (Aids, War, military technology) - CIDA has no policy on disability - disabled still on low totem pole - poorest of poor - UN agenda dropped after Decade 1983-1992 - Canadian government role decreased in priority after Decade 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - environmental problems cause disability - Aids and other causes of disability - War/Conflict - landmines - Global village opportunity to share new models - information technology - participatory research approaches

The technological revolution that has taken place through fax, television, Internet