

North Atlantic Treaty—Con.

- Commitments—Con.
  - Political, not military, 347
- Contributions under, 103
  - Canada's natural resources of, 348-50
  - Certain countries to supply men and the others to supply materials, 438
- Council. See North Atlantic Council
- Defence equipment and supplies
  - Allocation, 438, 680-81
  - Appropriation for, 436-39. See also Defence Appropriation Bill
  - Best contribution at present, 326
  - Production of, 270
  - Provision from mobilization stores, 299-300
    - To equip a division, 409-10
- Defence matters, progress in, 422
- Expenditures, 418. See also Defence Appropriation Bill
- Extension of aid to commonwealth nations under, 485-86
- Extension of to meet aggression anywhere in the world, 219, 394
- Lend-lease program under, 619
- Maintenance of peace the objective of, 200, 213
- Military organization, 376-77
- Nations
  - Attack against signatory, procedure in event of, 375-77
  - "May yet arrest the tide of advancing barbarism", article in Lloyd's Bank Review, 181-82
  - Measures undertaken in consultation with, 355
  - Signatory unwilling to join in action against aggressor, 376
  - To get forces in being in western Europe at earliest possible date, 223
  - Training facilities for, 299
    - Aircrew. See Royal Canadian Air Force
- Obligations, 85-95, 211, 336, 598, 617-18
  - Article 5 under, to provide fighting force, 350-51. See also under this title, Special force
  - Change in plans with regard to will be communicated to parliament, 680
  - In regard to collective defence, 223-24
    - Misinterpretation of statement made by Mr. Pearson, 311-12
  - Most effectively met by present arrangement of providing arms and equipment, 680-81
  - No military obligations under as yet, 337-38
  - Six or eight months to meet, 336
  - Statement of action to be taken under, 309
  - Unpreparedness to meet, 217, 307

North Atlantic Treaty—Con.

- Participation in supported by Canadian electors, 191
- Special force, 100
  - Action not to be taken without the decision of parliament, 493-94
- Commitments. See Canadian Forces Bill
- Provision of would have to be sanctioned by parliament, 351
- Strategy of to forestall aggression against European countries, 182
- United States
  - Contribution to defence forces, Christian Science Monitor on, 676
  - Increase in number of troops to Europe, 685

North Korea. See Korea*Noseworthy, Mr. J. W. (York South)

- Address in reply, 163-68
- Budget, 694-98
- Communism, appeal of, 358-60
- Communist struggle for world domination, 165-66
- Controls, removal of, 523-25
- Defence appropriation bill, 358-61
- Essential materials bill, 523-25
- Excess profits tax, 694-98
- Excise tax bill, 733
- Inflation, 694-98
- Korean situation, events leading up to, 163-65
- Maintenance of railway operation bill, 65, 74
- National defence, preparedness, 358-59
- Secret session, 358-59

Nowlan, Mr. George C. (Annapolis-Kings)

- Budget, 644-47
- Fruit juices and other fruit products imported from United States, return ordered, 662
- Introduction of, 1

"O Canada", removal of certain words from, 250*Oaths of Office, pro forma bill not to be presented at this session, 1-2*Oil

- Controls on, 569
- Daily production of crude, 447
- Edible. See Edible Oils

Old Age Pensions. See also Social Security

- Added cost of $250,000,000 would not be inflationary, merely a redistribution of wealth, 674-75
- And rising cost of living, 266, 671-76. See also Cost of Living