PRICES AND INCOME BOARD

Question No. 1,668—Mr. Fortin:

1. Has a Prices and Income Board been established and, if so (a) when was it established (b) what are the terms of reference of the Board (c) who are the members of the Board (d) what are their salaries?

2. If such a Board has not yet been established, is it the government's intention to do so and, if so, on what date?

3. Does the government intend to refer the matter of price, income and employment stability to a Senate committee and, if so, when?

Hon. Ron Basford (Minister of Consumer and Corporate Affairs): 1. The Price and Incomes Commission, proposed in the White Paper on Policies for Price Stability which was tabled in Parliament on December 20, has not yet been established.

2. As indicated in the House of Commons on February 27, in answer to a question by the hon. member for Vancouver-Kingsway (Mrs. MacInnis), it is hoped that the Commission can be established this month.

3. The White Paper proposed a Joint Committee of the Senate and the House of Commons to receive the reports of the Commission and review them. The Government intends to move for the creation of the Parliamentary Committee once the Commission has been established and has begun its work.
