

There need be no further expense beyond the salary of a general manager, who would be under the order of the honorary commission of, say, two men and a Cabinet Minister as Chairman.

With tourists will come an average of two permanent residents to take care of the wants of every five travellers; a certain percentage of tourists will return to settle; industries will follow the growth of population; land clearing will be carried out as demand requires; one thing will lead to another and we shall accomplish more in the next five years than we have done in the last thirty. Let us get together and do it, and not keep on waiting from year to year for something to turn up, and continually asking the Dominion or Provincial Governments for temporary works to carry us over hard times. The remedy is in our own hands.
