

January 19th, 1925.

Hon. Mr. Chief Justice Maclean,
Exchequer Court,
Ottawa.

My dear Mr. Chief Justice:-

I attach herewith copy of a letter which I have to-day received from an old friend of mine in Victoria, Mr. Roland Stuart.

Apparently the case in which he is interested was heard before you. I know that Mr. Stuart is now living in England and is anxious to return there. I am quite sure you will see there is no unnecessary delay.

With all kindest wishes,

I am,

Yours faithfully,
