

War and ordnance department, order Lamb to Springfield, 233.
Lamb's report to, 234.
Letter of secretary to Lamb, 236.
Reply of Lamb, 237.
Washington, general, his masterly retreat of the army from Long Island,
Appendix A.
Letter to Lamb, 225.
Lamb's letters to, 234, 236.
Embarrassed by neglect of congress, 242.
Offers battle to the enemy, 254.
Confers with the French commander at Hartford, and returns to Fishkill: sends his suite to Arnold's quarters: turns aside to examine a redoubt, 260.

154.
158.

gomery,