

GRAMMAIRE FRANÇAISE

Boire

1. Do you drink wine? 2. No, I drink water. 3. I used to drink a great deal of milk. 4. My children always drink it. 5. If you wish me to drink something give me some coffee, please. 6. Last winter I drank a little coffee. 7. My wife will drink coffee three times a day. 8. She would drink tea if she could. 9. After drinking tea she is often ill. 10. You must drink something.

Conduire

Le garçon se conduit bien. The boy behaves well.

1. Will you take me home? 2. Yes, if you wish me to take you home. 3. I used to take you home when you were ready. 4. I have always behaved very well, I think. 5. Who will take you to the theatre? 6. I shall take the children there with me. 7. They always behave well. 8. Everyone behaves well at the theatre. 9. They must behave. 10. You must take me home tonight.

Connître

Je le connais de vue, de nom. I know him by sight, by name.

1. Do you know those men? 2. I know them by sight. 3. I wish I knew them by name. 4. I have known your brother a long time. 5. You will never know mine, he is never at home. 6. I used to know your sister. 7. She would know me if she saw me. 8. She knows a great many people by sight, doesn't she? 9. Although I do not know many people I have some good friends. 10. If I go out more I'll know more people, I'm sure.