

Sivell, Rhoda (Cosgrave) 1875?-1962

Born in Dublin, came with her family to White-wood, Sask.; her father was one of the six jurors at the trial of Louis Riel; married a rancher near Medicine Hat, 1899; during husband's illness had to ride the range, during which time she cultivated the muse; bought two stallions with the proceeds of her volume of verse. (Journal, 22-7-55; 3-2-60; Medicine Hat News, 21-2-62)
Voices from the range. 2263