

UNIFORM EDITIONS OF
EVELYN EVERETT-GREEN'S TALES.

The Percivals.

With a Frontispiece. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 2s. 6d.

The Independent says:—'A spirited story of a household of girls and their doings.'

The Record says:—'Will prove popular among girls.'

Marcus Stratford's Charge;

or, Roy's Temptation.

With a Frontispiece. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 2s. 6d.

The Bookseller says:—'An English country story, the real hero being one Roy, whom his guardian had for a long time taken for a relative. A capital tale, full of good teaching.'

Sir Reginald's Ward;

or, Tales of the Family.

With a Frontispiece. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 2s. 6d.

Alwyn Ravendale.

With Frontispiece by HAROLD COPPING.

Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 2s. 6d.

The Birmingham Post says:—'It is an admirable study of the development of character.'

The Review of Reviews says:—'It is an original and fascinating story.'

---

At 3s. 6d.

The Conscience of Roger Treherne.

Illustrated. Large crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 3s. 6d.

The Spectator says:—'Roger Treherne, with his sterling honesty of purpose, is a very attractive person. He goes through a year or so of storm and stress, and finally his light shines clearly and he obeys his call.'

The Faith of Hilary Level.

A Tale of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth.

With Seven Illustrations by ALFRED PEARSE.

Large crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 3s. 6d.

The Morning Post says:—'It is a brightly written story.'

The Christian World says:—'It is a vigorous well-told tale with a pleasant love story woven into it.'