

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

N. B. If the Green Crop has been preserved, and the whole used in a sound state for the food of cattle, it must be stated in addition, and in what manner it was preserved, the date when it was commenced to be eaten, and at what date it was all consumed and by what number and what kind of stock, and whether the Premiums Nos.——are claimed.

Premiums for the County of Quebec for the years 1824 & 1825.

The following premiums are offered to all farmers and to farmers only, in the County of Quebec. The committee of the Quebec Agricultural Society will grant to each of the auxiliary Agricultural Societies, formed in the District, sufficient funds to pay the premiums which they may severally offer for the year; provided that those premiums do not exceed an amount proportionable to that hereinafter offered for the County of Quebec, and in ratio of the agricultural population of the Parishes comprised within the respective limits of the said auxiliary Societies.

To entitle the said Auxiliary Societies to the aforementioned funds it will be necessary :

1. That they publish without delay, on a Sunday or holiday immediately after Divine Service, at the church door of the Parishes within their limits respectively, lists of Premiums for 1824, notifying the time and place at which their exhibitions are to be held.

2. That they transmit to the Assistant Secretary of this Society a copy of such list of Premiums, certifying the publication thereof as aforesaid.

3. That they cause to be transmitted without any delay to the committee of the Quebec Agricultural Society, a statement of the expenses, and the application of the funds, they may have received, as well as the amount of funds in their hands. Without attention to this, it will not be in the power of the committee to allow them any funds for the present year.

The Committee of the Quebec Society also recommends :

1. That the said Auxiliary Societies, do again cause their lists of Premiums to be published at each Church Door within their limits, immediately after Divine Service, on the two Sundays preceding the day fixed for the exhibitions.

2. That in all other respects the conditions annexed to the aforesaid list of Premiums for the District of Quebec, be complied with, as far as practicable ; and particularly that a list of the Premiums which may be awarded by each of the said Auxiliary Societies, containing all the information required by the fourth article of the said conditions be transmitted to the Assistant Secretary of this Committee as soon as may be, after they are awarded.
