

When the process of fumigation is completed, throw open all doors and windows and air the house well, after which sponge all exposed surfaces with a solution of carbolic acid, two ounces in each gallon of water, and give a final scrubbing with soap and hot water in the usual way.

---

N. B.—The Provincial Board will from time to time issue instructions in accordance with recent scientific investigations.

According to clause 15, chapter 47, Victoria 51 and 52 : "An act respecting Public Health" a penalty of twenty dollars is incurred for all infractions of these regulations and schedules.