

A PROTESTANT'S RESOLVE—(7's and 6's.)
(Tune Dunkirk, from 1911 Choir Book, page 56.)

We won't give up the Bible,
God's holy book of truth;
The blessed staff of hoary age,
The guide of early youth;
The sun that sheds a glorious light
O'er every dreary road;
The voice that speaks a Saviour's love.
And call's us home to God.

We won't give up the Bible,
For pleasure or for pain;
We'll buy the truth, and sell it not
For all that we might gain.
Though men should try to take our prize
By guile or cruel might,
We'd suffer all that men can do,
And God defend the right.

We won't give up the Bible,
But spread it far and wide,
Until its saving voice be heard
Beyond the rolling tide:
Till all shall know its gracious power,
And, with one voice and heart,
Resolve that from God's sacred Word
They'll never, never part.

The Present Basis of Teaching in the Roman Catholic "Church."

We say "the present basis," as, although the Roman Catholic Church claims to be semper eadem, or ever the same, the "developments," "progress," and therefore alterations and additions to her elastic "constitution" have been so numerous from time to time as to indicate her supposition that Protestants have no memory for historic facts or that the records of her own printed books are meaningless, and that she is not bound thereby.

Scholars will not fail to note the errors and falsities that abound and lurk in every line or sentence of the
