

a shedding down upon them of the same gracious influence, how can we, in the face of such heaven-descended tokens, be found perpetually trumpeting forth vainglorious assertions of the pre-eminent value of our own systems and usages ; and how can we refuse to say, combining the temper of the dove with that of the eagle, and looking from on high on the wide circle of Divine mercy 'Grace be with all those that love the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity ?'

"The conclusion of the matter therefore, is that for the healing of the wounds of a distracted Church, and for the melting down of sectarian jealousies and alienations, there is but one sovereign remedy—the baptism of the Holy Ghost.

"6. This great awakening casts a new light upon the duties and responsibilities of individual Christians.

"In this respect, it has called forth into harmonious development a new power in the Church, even the power of prayerful effort among its true-hearted and devoted members. What is it that has long been for a lamentation among the faithful ministers of the Gospel in this land ? Has it not been
