SOLDIERS' MEMORIAL AT PORTLAND SQUARE

Statue to Heroes of 1812 Unveiled by Hon. Dr. Pyne on Saturday Afternoon.

In the presence of a large attendance of citizens the monument to the soldiers of 1812, erected largely through the efforts of the Army and Navy Veterans' Association in Memorial Park, Fortland-street, was on Saturday afternoon formally unveiled by the Hon. Dr. Pyne, representing Premier Whitney, who is out of the city.

While some three years has elapsed since the first steps were taken toward the erection of the monument, by the laying of the base, the work of completing the statue which crowns the granite pile was finished only recently. The monument proper is some eight feet square at the base, gradually tapering to the top, while the statue itself represents the half length figure of a veteran wearing the soldiers dress of the day. The bust is the work of Sculptor Alward of Toronto, but base is the work of the McIntosh Co.

Major Collins, president of the Army and Navy Veterans, was in charge of the proceedings, and following the unveiling by the Hon. Dr. Pyne, the minister of education reverted briefly to the heroism and many deeds of valor displayed by the men whose memory they all revered. The influence of their lives would be an incentive to Canadians thru the ages to come.

Hon. Dr. Pyne in passing also referred to the Whitney cabinet as a military body, including, as it did, Lieut.-Col. Whitney and Col. Matheson, together with Major Hendrie and Major Willsborough.

For himself, he could also claim the honor of having served in defence of his country. The flag, which all loved, did not fly without great loss of life, which Canadians were ever ready to shed in defence of their land.

At this moment an incident occurred which the hon. minister termed to good account. Proceeding to pull the rope which held the flag, whose folds covered the statue.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

The atmosphere and scenes of Richard Carle's latest and most successful comic opera, "The Mayor of Tokio," which will be the attraction at the Grand this week, the first time in Toronto, is all Japanese. Both acts are laid in a public garden in the City of Tokio. Into this delightful land, a band of impetuous play actors, members of an American comic opera company, are projected. They are mistaken for a party of royal pageants traveling in disguise. When the truth is discovered their condition becomes very near to a vat of boiling oil. The impresario himself, one Klöder, a homely wardrobe mistress, a scoundrel of quoting Shakespeare, a song-book boy in love with the scoundrel, a Peasant Ballet, all help to make things amusing, while a comic opera singer makes love to a Japanese princess. The scenery, and costumes are said to be new and very fine, and the company is one of the best musical organizations.

A fine representation of the Cliff House, from the windows of which the panoramic view of the harbor of San Francisco, with the Golden Gate, and the broad expanse of the beautiful Pacific, forming the principal features of Lincoln J. Carter's last play, "While Franco Burns," to be played here at the Majestic this week, with a matinee every day.

You should not miss seeing "The Colonial Belles," the Campbell-Drew Amusement Co.'s newest burlesque show, which opens a week's engagement at the Star Theatre this week. The performance commences with a musical extravaganza, "The Baby Farm," and introduces the entire company, headed by the popular character comedian, Charles Robinson, who appears as the eccentric superintendent.

After her concert on Jan. 19, at Massey Hall, Madame Le Grand Reed will go on tour with the pithebe Orchestra thru Canada, and will afterwards appear in the principal American cities. Great interest is being taken in her concert on Jan. 19.

Last year, when the National Chorus gave its concert, the critics were unanimous in praising the very great advances made during the preceding 12 months. "The Ode to the Northeast Wind," by Frederic Cliffe, will be the principal choral work. It is capable of most charming phases of interpretation. The sale of seats for subscribers begins this morning, and for the announced on Thursday morning.

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," which opens a week's engagement at the Princess to-night, as a dramatic offering is said to be as good as ever was caught. The dramatization of the book that was written concerning the heroine of the Cabbage Patch people, brings one near the sources of the smiles and tears, and gives an insight into the tenderness, the sacrifice, the delights and pain in the lives of the humble. The whole performance reveals the tragedies and comedies in the lives of the humble and is instructive in its way as the best sermon that could be preached. There will be matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

Manager Shea is offering the star attraction of the season so far in Arnold Daly, the leading actor in the Bernard Shaw satire, "How He Lied to Her Husband." This alone should be enough to crowd the Yonge-street theatre at all performances, but in addition the following big bill will be presented: John and Louis Bolter, the cycling sensationists; the Mowatts, rapid fire club jugglers; Redford and Winchester, the burlesque jugglers; Al. Carleton, the skinny guy monologist; Maxine Kensington and her funny tricks; Thora Hickman Bros., "Who Stopped the Ferryboat?"; the O'Connor Trio, charming vocalists; and the Kriegerphot with new pictures.

CROWN LOSES SUIT.

Woodruff Estate Does Not Come Under Succession Dues Act.

The provincial measure's suit against the Samuel R. Woodruff estate, St. Catharines, for added succession duties, was dismissed by Chief Justice Falconbridge, in the superior court Saturday, with costs to the crown.

The chief justice held with the crown's contention that the homestead property, valued at $20,000, should have been included in the surrogate's affidavit of value, but this addition did not bring the estate within the operation of the Succession Duties Act. The United States municipal debt of $800,000, now held in trust at New York City, which had been transferred by deceased to his sons, were not taxable.

CANADIAN TRAIN-DE-LUXE.

The "International Limited" is the appropriate name by which one of the swell trains of the Grand Trunk Railway system is known. In addition to the many Canadians who travel by this flyer, its passengers include men and women of international reputation, for the reason that it merits its world-wide reputation as the train-de-luxe of Canada. When we recall that the Grand Trunk is Canada's double track railway between Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, Niagara Falls and other principal cities, and that its roadbed is the best in the Dominion, it is certainly a matter of congratulation. This great system is the longest double track in the world under one management. The "International Limited" leaves Montreal every morning at 9 o'clock, and runs over the splendid double track system from Montreal to Chicago. Its stops being limited to the chief points along the route. It is the finest and fastest train in the Dominion, where it is known as the "Railway Greyhound of Canada."

Those who travel should not miss the opportunity of riding on this train when they are going west. Through sleeping cars, café and library cars are part of the equipment of this magnificent train.

HARRIMAN WANTED DELAY IN ANNOUNCING DIVIDENDS

To Give Absent Directors a Chance—Some Inside History.

New York, Jan. 5.—The interstate commerce commission concluded the preliminary portion of its enquiry into the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railways and allied Harriman lines in this city to-day, and adjourned to meet again to-morrow.

The testimony taken to-day tended further to show the great scope of the power conferred upon President E. H. Harriman by the boards of directors of the various lines under Union Pacific control.

All the facts of record as to the declaration of dividend last August by the Union and Southern Pacific were brought out by the commission. The dividends were declared on Aug. 12, but were not announced until two days later, just before the stock exchange opened for business. It was change opened for business. It was change opened for business. It was change opened for business.

From the minutes of the Oregon Short Line executive committee, it was disclosed that, in March, 1925, Mr. Harriman sold to Wm. Rockefeller 300,000 shares of the Oregon Short Line's holdings of Southern Pacific common stocks. A letter from Mr. Rockefeller, referring to their "agreement" as to the stock was then placed in evidence. In November, 1923, Mr. Rockefeller asked Mr. Harriman to take back the stock at that time instead of waiting for the expiration of the agreement in the spring of 1923.

The minutes of the Short Line show that the stock was bought back from Mr. Rockefeller. It was further shown that he was paid a commission of $187,500. To-day's witnesses knew nothing of the terms of agreement between Mr. Harriman and Mr. Rockefeller, referring to their "agreement" to appear at such time as the commission shall designate.

A subpoena was issued for Mr. Rockefeller, when he is able to testify, will also be questioned regarding this agreement.

FARM SALE REUNITES FAMILY

Brother Supposed to Be Dead Located in Ontario Town.

Windsor, Jan. 5.—As the result of the efforts of two different companies to buy the Kinna farm, near Ausable, Michigan, which contains valuable water electrical purposes, two members of the family, supposed to have been dead for years, have been found and the family has been reunited.

The mother is Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Hopkinson, who has lived here for several years. She came to Windsor after the death of Mr. Kinna. She remained here, but is again a widow. The oldest son, Wesley, was in legal possession of the Ausable property. He was drowned as he was about to complete the sale to one of the companies seeking it. Three remaining brothers divided the property among themselves. In looking for all the heirs to get full possession of the farm at Ausable, one of the companies found a fourth brother, supposed to be dead, living at Ashton, Ont. Thru him the mother was located here.

She had never communicated with the sons at Ausable, the only 200 miles from here. Under the Michigan statute she becomes sole owner of her former home.

A Unique Advertisement.

One of the best pieces of outdoor advertising in a theoretical way that have been seen for some years is for the heralding of "The Mayor of Tokio." A number of large cards bearing the words "War With Japan," has the facsimile of a telegram talking of the beauty of the production. The card strikes everyone. People stop and read it, and smilingly turn away, remarking, "Well, that is a good ad."

FREE UNTIL CURED

No man need be weak, no man need suffer from the loss of that vitality which makes life worth living. He can be made strong, magnetic, forceful and lighthearted, confident of his power both in business and society; free from spells of despondency, nervousness, lassitude and brain wanderings. I have a certain cure for Nervous Debility, Varicose Veins, Lame Back, Stomach, Liver and Kidney Complaints, in my world-famed Dr. Sanden Electric Belt with Electric Suspensory, and I will give it absolutely free until a cure is effected. How can I do this? For two reasons. I have the certain knowledge that my Belt will cure, and I have confidence enough in mankind to wait for my money until I prove it. This is what every doctor should do, but I am the only one who has a remedy that will stand such a crucial test. For 40 years I have been curing thousands every year, and have made a tremendous success doing business on this basis. NOT ONE PENNY IN ADVANCE OR ON DEPOSIT, and if I fail it costs you nothing whatever. All I ask is that you pay me the usual price of the Belt when cured—in some cases not over $5.00. I will leave you to be the judge, and will take your word for results, or for cash I give full wholesale discount. Forty years' continuous success has brought forth many imitators. Beware of them. You can try the original, the standard of the world, free until cured, then pay for it. Call or send for me to-day, also my two illustrated books giving full information free, sealed by mail.
