MANY WEDDINGS YESTERDAY. the Month of June is Keeping Up

The residence of Mr. Richard Libby was the scene of a happy event Wednesday evening, when his daughter, Miss Ada Libby, was married to Mr. John R. McBride, Rev. Dr. Galbraith officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Hattle Libby, while the groom was supported by Mr. T. S. Kelly. The drawing rooms were very prettily decorated, there being an archway in the centre of the room of marguerites and ferns. After the sumptuous repast the happy couple left to spend the honeymoon in some of the eastern cities of the United States. The presents were very numerous and dies and their escorts will be permitted to enter it.

The main doors of the building will be thrown open at 6.30 o'clock, and if holders of platform tickets wish to secure their seats they should be upon the scene before that hour, as the committee in charge cannot warrant the platform being kept clear, for once the rush begins it will be hard to control the crowd on the lower floor.

From 6.30 o'clock till the meeting opens, Messrs. J. L. Blakeley and Fred Warrington will entertain the audience, the former presiding at the big pipe organ and the latter rendering vocal solos from time to time. In
