A BELMONT BUNGLER

Allowed to Go.

James Frecher, the young German arrested at Belmont on a charge of attempting to obtain $200 under false pretences from Clarke Manning, was brought before Squires Lacey and Smyth yesterday and discharged. The prisoner admitted that his name was Chas. A. Baier, and that he was a grain buyer, instead of being a lawyer, but had at one time studied law. Recently he has been purchasing grain in the vicinity of Dorchester and Harriettsville. He further admitted that he had an object in visiting Manning, but it was not to do anything fraudu-Frecher was reprimanded severely by Magistrate Lacey, who said it was fortunate for him that Mr. Manning had not allowed him to go any further and that the evidence against him was not sufficient to send him for trial. He was then discharged.

evidence was overwhelmingly in favor of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Mr. Conmee is leading by a hundred or two in West Algoma, and is confident of increasing these fig-ures. Mr. Macnish is elected by 12 in West Elgin, and in the recount to be held is less likely to come to grief than Mr. Brower in East Elgin, who can beast of a majority of 8 only, or Monteith in South Perth, where majority has sunk to 5, or Mr. Powell in Ottawa, who is only 10 ahead of Mr. O'Keefe, or Mr. Beck, of West Huron who also has but the tiny majority of 2 over Mr. Garrow. AN ABSURD RUMOR. A representative of the Globe called on Premier Hardy last night and drew his attention to the following paragraph in the Evening News, headed, "Will Hardy Retire?": "It is reported that Hon, A. S. Hardy recently ob-served to one of his friends that he could not stand the strain of political life much longer, as his health was suffering considerably. Those who pretend to have knowledge of the inner workings of the Liberal party argue from this remark, together with other indications, that Mr. Hardy may shortly retire from active participa-tion in politics." Asked if he had anything to say concerning what was was evidently a groundless rumor, the premier remarked: "It is, of course. worth contradicting.
