sumption of the inquest here to-night. The cause of the young man's death is still unknown as far as the public Harry Marks of Toronto, a friend of Ohio. Bollards, who was holidaying with him at Chemong, stated that Bollard had complained to him that Fred Jopling had caught him unfair during the fight

The body will be shipped to Almonte, Ont., for interment. At Winnipeg, where Eccles once lived, a public funeral service will be held. The body will be shipped to Almonte,

The inquest to-night in the court from was attended by over four hundred. The crown was represented by Crown Attorney R. E. Wood, F. D. Kerr was present for the Bollard family, and D. O'Connell, K.C., for the Joplings. The witnesses were: Harry Jopling, brother of Fred, Charles Forsythe, a Bridgenorth young man. R. sythe, a Bridgenorth young man, R. W. Harstone, a cottager at Chemong Park, and Marks, who was holidaying at the Bollard cottage.

The evidence of Fred, Charles Foration was performed, but the islock was too great for his weakened constitution. Deceased was a son of the late John Ross, who conducted the woolen milks at Norval. Geo. W. Ross
