THE WEATHER

METEOROLOGICAL OFFICE, Toronto, Dec. 23.—The depression mentioned last night as being centred over Indiana has since developed great energy. It has moved rapidly northeastward, and this evening it is centred over Vermont. It has caused snow, sleet and rain from Ontario to the Maritime Provinces, attended by strong winds and gales. In the prairie provinces fine weather has prevailed.

Minimum and maximum temperatures: Dawson, 6 below—2; Atlin, 6—14; Port Simpson, 34—2; Vancouver, 39—48; New Westminster, 40—48; Kamloops, 26—34; Edmonton, 28—30; Prince Albert, 12—24; Calgary, 20—34; Regina, 10—30; Winnipeg, 10—24; Parry Sound, 28—34; Toronto, 30—36; Ottawa, 30—32; Montreal, 26—34; Quebec, 24—32; St. John, 32—46; Halifax, 24—48.

Löwer Lakes and Georgian Bay—Fresh to strong northwesterly winds; fair; stationary or slightly lower temperature.

Ottawa Valley and Upper St. Lawrence

erature.
Ottawa Valley and Upper St. Lawrence
-Fresh to strong northwesterly winds;
mostly fair and not much change in temperature.

Lower St. Lawrence and Gulf—Strong winds and gales, gradually shifting to westerly; snow or rain, followed by clearing; about the same temperature.

Maritime—Southwesterly and easterly winds, gradually decreasing in force; unsettled and mild and showers to-day, clearing at night.

Lake Superior and Manitoba—Fair and moderately cold.

Saskatchewan and Alberta—Mostly fair, but some light fails of sleet or snow. Something new—Fine Huckaback Linen Towels, hemstitch damask ends, 22x40 inches; large initial letter in nicely raised hand-wrought design on end; every initial in stock but "C," "G," "H," "I," "K," "O," "P," "Q," "U," "V," "X," "Y," "Z." Any particular housekeeper will take great pride in these at $6.00 per dozen, or $1.00 per pair.
