Young Men Not Brave Enough For War Should Shun Wedlock

special to The Toronto World. Cornwall, April 23 .- The Rev. L. D. Buro, formerly pastor of the Advent Christian Church, at Lunenburg, this county, who afterwards received a call to Massena, is an enthusiastic patriot. He says: "You can just put me down as one clergyman who would be extremely reluctant to marry young man whose chief motive for entering into wedlock is a desire to escape military service. I think a young man who is not brave enough to heed his country's call in time of trouble is hardly brave enough to make and support a home in these days of soaring prices and increased cost of
