

DAY IN THE CIRCUITS

Their First
on Giants Gossip.

A long lead if the clubs don't look downed the Giants
it more bitter, de-York pitcher, let down with three

Harmon a puzzle, was three hits. The red a shutout.

near being blanked
two men on base.
circuit clout, and the Senators' runs.

is far from being and old man sup-
the fastest yesterday with two men were absent from the Giants in victory over the season misjudged a

for it, caught in and lost the ball
run over.

LONGBOAT
DIERS' MEET

cut short his program in order to run at the second association meeting after. When rathens took up there is always course from the received almost pected to happen
dark horse often circumstances.

OPER
HITE

LISTS
Diseases
Syphilis
Gonorrhea
Skin Diseases
Kidney Affecting Ladder Diseases
Incontinence, Medicine
Hours: 10 a.m. to 1 12 p.m. to 1 p.m. on Free
& WHITE
Toronto, Ont.

are Ago
the final stage
a home, Billard Table is a well-equipped

CO'S HAPPY
ARD TABLE
na, and is can be thout dining-room
bie and keep you
whole family will particulars.

AY & CO.,
STREET WEST,
TORONTO.

atalogue of ycle and Accessories
CO., Limited
Street

RAU
ct of Malt ating preparation
roduced to help id or the athletic nist, Toronto.

ASST.
TURED BY 244
LVADOR BREWERY
TORONTO.

GALLOP IS REPEATER AT HAYRE DE GRACE TRACK

Marrone Stable's Good One Captures Fifth Race—Savilla's Baby Stake.

HAYRE DE GRACE, April 20.—The races today resulted as follows:
FIRST RACE—Two-year-olds, selling,
four furlongs:
Marrone, 108 (J. McTaggart), $5.30, $2.50, $2.70.
2. Valerius West, 105 (McDermott), $2.30, $2.50.
3. Lobelia, 94 (Lyke), $2.60.
4. Time 48. Defender, Bon Otis, Lantana, Doc Meals also ran.

SECOND RACE—Four-year-olds and up, one mile and 70 yards: Dinah Do, 102 (Schuttlinger), $5.70, $2.30, $2.50.
2. Royal Meteor, 112 (J. McTaggart), $2.50, $2.50.
3. Little England, 112 (Obert), $2.
4. Time 1:42.8. Supreme, Mordcau, Napier, Ray o' Light also ran.

THIRD RACE—Three-year-olds, selling, six furlongs:
Casco, 100 (Farrington), $7.50, $4.10, $2.50, $2.50.
2. Stellaria, 105 (Haynes), $9.50, $4.30, $2.50, $2.50.
3. Good Counsel, 110 (Lyke), $5.
4. Time 1:42.8. Typography, Memory, Examiner, Rose Juliette, Scottish Knight also ran.

FOURTH RACE—Four furlongs: Savilla, 110 (Anderson), $4.40, out.
2. Running Shot, 107 (Schuttlinger), out.

5. The Only One, 107 (Buxton), out.
6. Time 49.2. Three starters.

FIFTH RACE—One mile and 70 yards: Gallop, 107 (Metcalfe), $8.50, $3.70, $2.50, $2.50.
2. Brave Comrade, 106 (McTaggart), $5.50, $2.50.
3. Harbard, 99 (Anderson), $2.60.
4. Time 1:44.2. Gloaming, Broomedge also ran.

SIXTH RACE—Six furlongs: Piquette, 96 (Cruise), $5.50, $2.50, $2.50.
2. Trend, 106 (Keogh), $5.50, $2.50, $2.50.
3. Billy Oliver, 101 (Ball), $4.20.
4. Time 1:15.1. Lillo, Life, Ellen Smyth, In and Out, Edith Olen, Two Lal, Elsie Bonero also ran.

SEVENTH RACE—Five and one-half furlongs:
Preston Lynn, 107 (Ball), $6.50, $3, $2.50, $2.50.
2. Rosemary, 107 (McTaggart), $4.30, $2.50, $2.50.
3. Glint, 112 (Butwell), $2.70.
4. Time 1:07.1. Ada Anne, Old Bob, Dakota, Quick, Stonehenge, Sir Denrah
also ran.

The Capitals Say
They Want Penalties For Rough Lacrosse

OTTAWA, April 21.—Matters pertaining to the organization of the Capitals of the N.L.L. were completed last night, when the election of officers took place, and the club, after being put on a running basis, decided to support the proposed changes in the N.L.L. rules.

The principal feature of the changes in the rules is that which tends towards cleaner play by the installation of a stiff penalty system for lacrosse, which provides a five-minute penalty for a minor offense and a ten-minute penalty for a major offense.

Contrary to expectations, Johnny powers, the veteran lacrosse star, was not elected president, but instead controller Joseph Kent, one of the most ardent lacrosse fans in the community.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Joseph Kent; vice-president, George J. Smith; secretary, Ernie Butterworth; committee, G. W. Durocher, L. N. Hare, Dr. J. Chabot, M.R.; Hal Mc-Givern, ex-J. Smith, W. Harey, H. Gilden.

Detroit probably wishes it had stepped in early last season and picked up little Urban, the ex-Ottawa player.

The Tigers' pitching staff is going so badly, Rube Marshall, who has been at the Montreal Royals' training camp at Hackettstown, N.J., has been recalled, leaving Dan Howley in somewhat bad straits for a reliable twirler.

Marshall was shaping up splendidly with Montreal.

Patrick Haley, father of the Provindence International last season, was at Norfolk, Va., yesterday to join the Bu-falo International, to which club he has been released by the Boston Americans.

A New
WATER
COLLAR

The Marne

Roll Front—Light weight Aristocratic in appearance 2 for 25c.

Same style in Red Label quality—JELICOE, 3 for 50c.

The Williams, Greene & Rome Co., Limited Makers of Fine Shirts

The World's Selections
BY CENTAUR

HAYRE DE GRACE.
FIRST RACE—Lucile P., Roy Ennis, My Girl.
SECOND RACE—Cubon, Handrunning, F. A. Stone.
THIRD RACE—Imperator, Between Us, King Worth.
FOURTH RACE—Sir Edgar, Keweenaw, Flittergold.
FIFTH RACE—Ida Claire, Ahara, Budweiser.
SIXTH RACE—Dr. Nelson, Noneseuch, Bright Star.
SEVENTH RACE—Meno Park, Luther, Videt.

Today's Entries

AT HAYRE DE GRACE.
HAYRE DE GRACE, April 21.—Entries for Saturday are as follows:
FIRST RACE—Two-year-olds, selling,
four furlongs:
Lucile P., $104 My Girl, $92
Roy Ennis, $107 Sally Boots, $99
F. A. Stone, $108 Cubon, $108
P. A. Stone, $108

SECOND RACE—Four-year-olds and up, steeples, handicap, about two miles, selling, six furlongs: Yorkville, $106 Between Us, $113 Redland, $116 Recluse, $104
The Masquerader, $114 Imperator, $114 Skiles Knob, $100 Sea Beach, $104 Insky, $108 Water Lily, $108 Vermont, $102 Goodwood, $108 Nash, $107 King Worth, $114 Tartan, $109

THIRD RACE—Three-year-olds and up, the Philadelphia Handicap, six furlongs: Achievement, $102 A. N. Aklin, $108 Prince Henry, $118 Tom Howard, $7 J. J. Lillis, $106 Sir Edgar, $108 Antia, $100 Keweenaw, $110
Flittergold, $109

(The weight on A. N. Aklin includes a penalty of 1 lb.)
FOURTH RACE—Four-year-olds and up, selling, one mile and seventy yards: Jones, $116 Redland, $116 Charles Francis, $112 Saratoga, $112 Ed Weiss, $102 Freda Johnson, $108
Chevron, $108 Shepherdess, $94
Tamerlane, $102 Billie Hibbs, $102 Ida Claire, $109 Coburn, $112 Harry Leander, $112 Tamer, $99

SIXTH RACE—Two-year-olds, selling,
four furlongs:
King Fisher, $110 Hasty Cork, $112 Judge Wingfield, $110 Dundagen, $115 Dr. Nelson, $110 Melan, $110 Bondage, $110 Magnolia, $107 Cousin Dan, $110 Bright Star, $107
Chevron, $108 Shepherdess, $94
and up, handicap, selling, 1-1/8 miles: Lochiel, $105 Good Counsel, $104
Scorpius, $108 Luther, $107
Meno Park, $105 Napier, $104
Videt, $107

Seventh race, selling, 1-1/8 miles:
Lochiel, $105 Good Counsel, $104
Scorpius, $108 Luther, $107
Meno Park, $105 Napier, $104
Videt, $107

Apprentice allowance claimed.
Weather clear; track fast.

WILSON'S "The All-Time Favorite"

BACHELOR CIGAR

You will like this cigar. The flavor is full, rich and satisfying. The aroma is delightful. Clear Havana filler. Finest Sumatra wrapper. Sold wherever cigars are sold.

Retail trade supplied from Toronto warehouse, 10 Front W.

(ANDREW WILSON & CO. TORONTO AND MONTREAL)

That Son-in-Law of Pa's

Copyright, 1916, by Newspaper Feature Service.

WELL, PA, THANKS TO DEAR CEDRIC, WE SHALL PROBABLY MINGLE WITH THE VERY BEST SOCIETY THIS SUMMER, SO IT IS QUITE NECESSARY THAT YOUR FANNERS BE POLISHED UP A BIT.

MR. VAN FLITTER, WHOM I HAVE RE-TAINED AS YOUR "SOCIAL ADVISER," WILL ENDEAVOR TO SHOW YOU THE CORRECT WAY TO DRESS, HOW TO CONDUCT YOURSELF IN SOCIETY, ETC.
COME WITH ME TO MEET HIM.

THIS IS MR. VAN FLITTER, PA, WE WERE VERY FORTUNATE TO OBTAIN HIS SERVICES, AS HE WOULD STILL BE WITH HIS FORMER CLIENT IF THE POOR MAN HADN'T DIED.

MR. VAN FLITTER, STILL BE WISHED ON THE
OTHER GUY, IF HE HADN'T
CROAKED,
H?

OH, DEATH, WHERE IS THY STING?

SOLDIERS, IN SHAPE,
DEFEATED T. & D. PICK

Soccer Game at Beach Real Argument on Heavy Field—One Goal Win.

Before a crowd of about 2000 spectators, the soccer season was officially opened at Scarborough Beach yesterday.
Teams selected from the battalions training in the city and the T. and D. League formed the attraction. The soldier boys were winners, 1 to 0. There were three changes in the soldiers' team, Pte. Hunt (170th) and Pte. Cowan (180th) taking the places of Pte. McMurray and J.
Knowles of the 180th, while Pte. C. Russell (124th) took the place of Pte. J. Tet-trington (48th Battery), who was unable to play thru injuries. The T. and D. played as second.

Referee S. Bance lined the teams up as follows: (1)—Goal, Pte. Hunt (170th); right back, Pte. Hutchinson (184th); left back, Pte. J. McKenna (124th); right half, Pte. J. Cameron (104th); centre half, Pte. J. Lowe (2nd); left half, Pte.
Cowan (180th); outside right, Pte. D.
McLeod (68th); inside right, Pte. C. Russell (124th); centre, Pte. J. Phillips (184th); inside left, Pte. W. Hammett (189th); outside left, Pte. D. Moffitt (124th).

Civilians (2)—Goal, Enfield (Sunderland A.B.); right back, Campbell (Thistles); left back, Richardson (Overseas Hearts); right half, A. Adley (Ulster); centre half, E. Young (Overseas Hearts); left half, D. McDonald (Wychwood); outside right, A. Barron (Dunlop); outside left, S.
Hamilton (H. & S. United); centre, S.
Lowe (Old Country); inside left, F. Forsythe (Ulster); outside left, S. Walker (Wychwood).

Captain F. C. Flanagan of the Military Athletic Association kicked off for the "Civilians." The soldiers were the first to assume the aggressive, Moffitt causing Enfield to clear twice in quick succession. The defence of the Civilians, however, gradually forced them back, and at last got away again and grazed the post with a beauty. Shortly afterwards Russell spoiled a nice opportunity by lying offside. Play now veered round to the left outside to relieve the pressure. Hunt kept his charge intact from the start to the end of the first half.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hutchinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort to end play was vain. The order for a time-out was given. The soldiers were each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by Richardson and Campbell, who fairly revelled in the mud. The soldiers were hounded on the return, and taking a chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

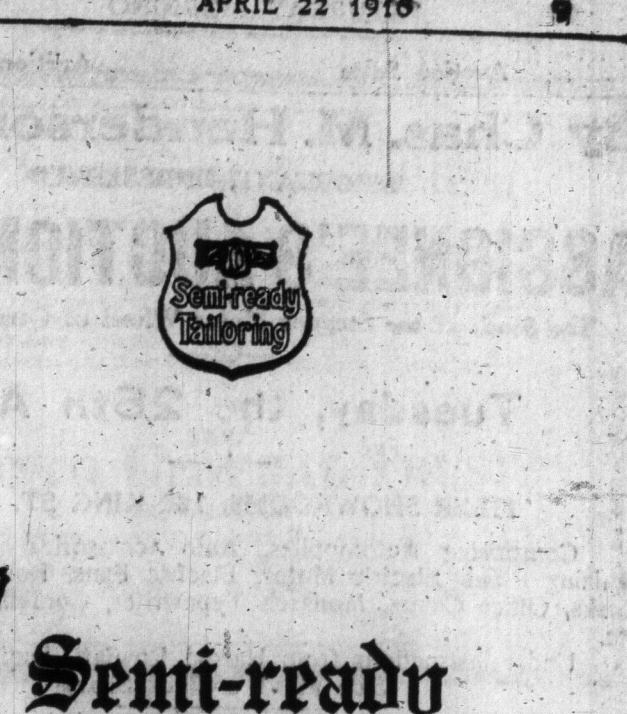

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

On restarting, the Civilians went off
with a rush, but were stopped by Hut-
chinson, who was playing a brilliant game.
McLeod went away, but his final effort
to end play was vain. The order for a
time-out was given. The soldiers were
each goal being visited in turn. Flac-
ton, for the Civilians, warmed his wits
thru, and after beating all but the goalie
he slipped in the mud and a good chance
was lost. The defence of the Civilians
perpetrated a blunder. The soldiers went
away in a body, but were stopped by
Richardson and Campbell, who fairly
revelled in the mud. The soldiers were
hounded on the return, and taking a
chance, sent in a swift, low shot, just
out of Enfield's reach, into the goal.

Semi-ready
Tailoring

Two Distinct Branches

¶ Suits finished to measure in an hour.

¶ Seven distinct physique types.

¶ Suits tailored to the try-on stage—altered and finished to fit in an hour.

¶ Imported British wool-lens—Tweeds, Serges, Worsteds, Homespuns.

¶ Price label in pocket shows whether it is $15, $20 or $25 value.

¶ A full guarantee of satisfaction with every garment.

ED. MACK, Limited
167 YONGE STREET.
A Full Line of Boys' and Youths' Suits and Overcoats Carried in Stock or Special Order.

suits' folks, the Buckwheats, back of Hogs Hollow," and the like.

But what circumstantially will the baseball scribes descend or be forced into when trying to scrape the training camp grounds clean of every grassblade of news regarding the players, a few examples taken from the Cincinnati Enquirer, for instance, show almost as intimate personal relationship as would obtain in any water tank town. For instance:

"James Orrie of Carnegie, Penn., a follow townsmen of Homer Wagoner, the Pirates. Peter has had plenty of experience in the courts and is one of the most popular officials on the circuit."

If you want your sausages cooked country style you don't have to stir out of the city.

The teams for the Brantford and Paris Baseball League are getting into line, and the prospects are for a most successful season. The teams already in are MacBride's Alerts, Holmdale, Paris and 25th. The muniton workers are likely to get a team in also. The game will be staged every Saturday afternoon, the proceeds, after paying expenses, to go to the Brant Soldiers' Tobacco Fund.

Have you ever ridiculed, in looking over the country newspapers, the apparently trifling paragraphs which,
nevertheless mean much to the rural readers? Something like: "Ezra Scroggins has set a new fence post in his front lawn," or "Josiah Jasper's eight-year-old son has been christened."

Eddie Linneborn, a well-known Canadian League infielder, is anxious to join Frank Shagnessy's squad at Warren, Pa.

Earl Hamilton, one of the St. Louis American southpaws, has traded his big automobile for a house and lot in Oswego, Kan. "The house is just for his month," Hamilton said. "It used to cost twice that much to keep the car in condition for service."

The teams for the Brantford and Paris
Baseball League are getting into line,
and the prospects are for a most successful season. The teams already in are MacBride's Alerts, Holmdale, Paris and 25th. The muniton workers are likely
to get a team in also. The game will
be staged every Saturday afternoon, the
proceeds, after paying expenses, to go to
the Brant Soldiers' Tobacco Fund.

Have you ever ridiculed, in looking
over the country newspapers, the apparently trifling paragraphs which,
nevertheless mean much to the rural
readers? Something like: "Ezra Scrog-
gins has set a new fence post in his